INTRODUCTION

Most people are familiar with their Sun sign based on the month and day of birth. The Sun sign answers the question, "What's your sign?" It is the reference point that is employed when we read newspaper and magazine horoscopes. But what about the nine other heavenly bodies that make their influence felt in our lives? These planets were also in a particular sign of the zodiac when you were born. Here is where Astrology really begins to come alive for each individual. This report will take you on a revealing journey as you travel through each interpretation based on your unique month, day, and year of birth. If your birth time was included, then the Rising sign will add yet another dimension to your personal horoscope interpretation. If it is not included because you don't have an accurate time of birth, there is still much useful and insightful personal information that can be gleaned from your report.

This report takes into account the various spiritual and psychological implications, as well as the material plane potentials which are part of your individual life plan. In this case the word potential is used because you have been given a certain amount of free will and the life choices that you make will determine to a large extent the level at which these cosmic energies actually play themselves out. Use this report to find confirmation for what you already feel intuitively and to unlock the door for new life possibilities that you may not have yet considered. This is where the strength and real value of your personal Astrological report is found.

Your birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth. For the benefit of students of astrology, these positions, along with other technical information, are listed below:

Chapter 1: The Ascendant

The precise time on the day of your birth determines your particular Ascendant, also known as your Rising Sign. This was the zodiac sign that was rising over the horizon when you were born. In addition to your Sun and Moon Sign, the Rising Sign reveals very important traits that make up a major part of your personality and your individual approach to life. This is usually the impression you like to make before you really get to know someone; it is your outer personality and image.

Pisces Rising:

There is a distinct part of your outer personality that expresses itself very much like a Pisces. You are dreamy, imaginative and highly idealistic.

Since this was the sign of the zodiac that was rising over the horizon at your time of birth, the principle of Pisces--inspiration and ego transcendence--will be integrated into almost every area of life in some way.

Neptune is your chart ruler. To discover even more about what's a priority for you, and also, the first impression you make on others, read everything in the chapter on Neptune.

Sun Conjunct or in hard aspect to Asc.:

You can develop a winning personality and the ability to attract lots of attention. You have a strong personality that radiates confidence. You have terrific leadership potential.

Moon Conjunct or in hard aspect to Asc.:

Depending on your mood on any given day, you can be super-sensitive and you'll sometimes over-react with the least amount of provocation. Mostly though, others often sense your sympathetic nature and are instinctively drawn to the nurturing side of your personality.

You enjoy the role of the understanding caretaker and yet, you often wonder when it will be your turn to be the one who is nurtured unconditionally.

Chapter 2: The Sun

The placement of the Sun in your chart will show you how (the sign) and in which area of life (the house) tremendous potential exists for you. Here is where you want to be successful. The Sun cannot be ignored. We must meet and deal with the area of life that the Sun shines on in our chart in order to find ultimate fulfillment. Everything revolves around the Sun. When you master whatever issues the Sun points to, then other areas of life will proceed in a more balanced and satisfactory manner. The Sun also represents: your own will, major goals, the father, men in your life, children, creativity, and the real inner you.

Sun in Virgo:

Discriminating and analytical, you have a special talent for separating what is useful from what is not. You possess a natural ability to create order from chaos. A cluttered environment is something you cannot tolerate for very long before you feel driven to straighten things out. "Put it where it belongs" could be your motto. Some Virgos will save every shoe box and magazine they ever owned, but even the pack rat types will probably have it all neatly organized and know exactly where everything is.

As this is a mental sign your perfectionist tendencies can give you more than your share of worry and concern over small details. You don't mean to be critical or to hurt another's feelings; you are simply acting on your natural instinct to create order and perfection. But remember that other people may not share your enthusiasm for attention to details.

Virgos like to feel useful. You especially don't mind helping your fellow man and you may be quite service oriented. However, depending on how strongly these traits are manifesting, you might become subject to feelings of inferiority or self-denial.

Thank goodness for the Virgos on the planet. While other signs may love to talk about creating a better world, Virgos are out there actually doing something about it.

Sun in 6th house:

Your personal fulfillment is reinforced by developing an attention to detail and learning all about the art of discernment. Often you will find yourself in situations which require creating some kind of order from chaos. Everyday responsibilities and the workplace are areas that will come into focus.

The Sun placed here will often emphasize anything related to the area of health, diet, and nutrition.

You could also find yourself in a position in which you are required to provide some kind of service for other people.

There is a side to you that can be something of a worrier. There are some underlying tendencies for perfectionism that can get in the way of letting go and just doing what you really want to do.

Neptune in soft aspect to Sun:

At times you can be sensitive and highly tuned in to the vibrations drifting about your environment. You have an excellent imagination and there is a side to you that has a deep appreciation for art, music and beauty.

Your intuition is emotional in nature and you will more than likely experience some kind of "supernatural" events at various life stages.

Pluto Conjunct or in hard aspect to Sun:

Your will can be relentless and you have a keen eye for the imperfections in your fellow man. Remember though, that they may not take kindly to your efforts to overhaul them, even if it is for their own good. Instead, work to make whatever changes are necessary within yourself so that you can lead by example rather than force.

You have charisma and magnetism working for you. You might get into the habit of toning yourself down so that other less courageous souls can "handle" you. Fine, but try not to lose yourself completely in the process.

Chapter 3: The Moon

The Moon in your chart represents the past and points to an area of life (the house) where we function out of instinctive awareness. Often we have a deep emotional need to do the things that the Moon's house placement represents. Whenever insecurities arise and our feelings become involved, we tend to bring the traits (the sign) of our Moon into play. The Moon is like our security blanket. It also represents: the home, females in your life, the mother, nurturing others or being nurtured ourselves, as well as things related to the domestic scene in general.

Moon in Pisces:

Sensitive, intuitive, and responsive, you need to withdraw from time to time in order to recharge your emotional batteries. You can be very impressionable because of a natural tendency to absorb psychic vibrations from your environment whether they are positive or negative. You may have a tendency to feel sorry for yourself, mainly because you often allow the needs of others to take precedence over your own needs which can lead to feelings of victimization or even persecution.

This placement of the Moon doesn't care for a steady dose of harsh reality and will often find ways to tune it out. This may take the form of daydreaming or in more extreme cases, addiction to substances.

You have an idealistic view of life and when it doesn't live up to your ideas of perfection, you can feel a kind of chronic discontent that is difficult to pin down to a particular situation.

At its best, having the Moon in Pisces can bring highly intuitive visions that may be downright psychic. At its worst, it can bring self delusion and misunderstandings.

You possess an excellent imagination and you could have a creative, musical or artistic bent.

When you're feeling emotionally upset, you may find that getting yourself into a meditative frame of mind will have a calming and healing effect on you.

Moon in 1st house:

You are somewhat moody and you must make a conscious effort to maintain a positive, consistent outlook on life. You fluctuate between feeling good about yourself and down on yourself. You keep those around you on their toes because your moods are difficult for other people to pin down consistently.

You can be quite impulsive and depending on your frame of mind on a particular day, you can be feisty and/or sensitive.

Your instincts are usually right on target and you get "gut feelings" about other people's motives.

Something about your upbringing could have strongly influenced your attitudes about yourself and your self image.

Saturn Conjunct or in hard aspect to Moon:

Try not to be so hard on yourself. You're a whole lot better than you think you are. When you recognize your worth, you can accomplish your goals whatever they may be.

Vague feelings of melancholy and pessimism can be defeated by staying actively involved in life and taking some constructive action toward a future goal. You are someone who benefits by making sure that you have planned something each day to look forward to, no matter how small.

Chapter 4: Mercury

Mercury is the planet of communication. It tells us about how we think and talk. You can gain insight into your mode of gathering, processing and transmitting information from Mercury's placement in your chart. Mercury also represents: transportation, the five senses, youth, reading, and writing.

Mercury in Leo:

You are creative, outspoken and you speak from the heart. You know how to use the power of words to win the attention of your audience. Dramatic and often colorful self-expression is a talent employed by some Mercury in Leo people as a way of persuading other people to give them the undivided attention they desire.

Acceptance of opposing opinions may be difficult. Actually changing your own opinion about something could be nearly impossible.

This placement is a plus for public speaking of any kind. You're probably a very good organizer too.

Mercury in 6th house:

This placement bestows you with excellent powers of logic and an ability to work with details. A variety of odd jobs can prevail until you're settled into a career. You may have a good eye for color and Mercury here supports the ability to use your hands creatively, such as making crafts, woodworking, sewing, etc.

Mars Conjunct or in hard aspect to Mercury:

If you don't make a habit of second guessing yourself, this aspect can boost your intuition if you're willing to trust it.

You are challenged to use the power of communication to enhance, rather than detract from your own best interest.

Jupiter in soft aspect to Mercury:

Open minded and tolerant, you express a wonderful curiosity about life. You have the ability to express philosophical ideas and you can give abstract concepts shape through the use of language (not an easy task for others).

Your sense of humor can help lighten up dark moments. You like to talk and you can advance yourself using your verbal skills. Teaching might appeal to you.

Pluto Conjunct or in hard aspect to Mercury:

Try not to resist life experiences that force you to completely change your thinking. At some point in life you are destined to drastically transform your mental approach and the way you use the power of words, especially the spoken word. You have the power to either destroy or ultimately heal yourself and/or others, depending on your choice of words and your thought forms.

Mercury is Retrograde

Lots of conversations are carried on inside your own head. With Mercury retrograde, you rarely blurt things out without thinking them over first. As a result, you may often find it easier to express yourself in writing. If so inclined, you'd make an excellent writer.

Chapter 5: Venus

Venus is the planet of relating to others, and thus is associated with love, attraction and socializing. In a male's chart, Venus can provide clues about traits he finds attractive in females. In a female's chart, it reveals something about how she relates to males. Venus is also the planet of material goodies and sensual delights in all of their various forms. Venus also represents: money, harmonious conditions, pleasurable activities, beauty, and the arts.

Venus in Leo:

You are affectionate, romantic and loyal. You love socializing, especially at parties where you can enjoy the spotlight. This is usually a generous position for Venus. Here is the planet of material goodies combined with the sign which signifies that more is better!

This is a very warm hearted and sincere placement. In relationships though, your intense loyalty could turn to possessiveness and jealousy, especially if your ego gets involved.

Venus in 6th house:

You actually derive a good deal of pleasure from the world of work and you are probably lucky enough to find work that you enjoy. You enjoy feeling helpful and often this indicates a willingness to participate in volunteer activities.

Any conflicts that arise with co-workers or employees should eventually work out to a harmonious conclusion.

You have a soft spot for small animals, so it's not surprising when homeless "critters" gravitate to your doorstep.

Mars Conjunct or in hard aspect to Venus:

Something about your appearance has a magnetic quality that attracts the attention of other people.

You'll get more of what you really want if you aren't afraid of letting others know exactly what it is that you desire.

Saturn in soft aspect to Venus:

You're generally faithful in relationships and you are a devoted partner and friend. Often it's difficult for you to extricate yourself from a relationship even when you know it would be in your best interest because of strong inner feelings of responsibility.

Uranus Conjunct or in hard aspect to Venus:

Relationships in general often begin suddenly, but they also can end just as abruptly. This aspect brings many unusual associates and alliances, and you are attracted to people who are considered "different" by societal norms. If a relationship turns sour, you can become quite aloof as a way to emotionally cope with disappointments.

Financial matters often seem subject to sudden and unexpected circumstances that seem beyond your control. Consider getting a handle on any impulsive spending habits. Develop a routine of sticking some cash away so that sudden financial obligations don't turn into a major crisis.

Chapter 6: Mars

Mars is our planet of action, energy output, motivation, and instinctive biological drives. It shows how and in which area of life you are willing to put forth a lot of effort. Mars' energy is quick, impulsive, and survival oriented. In a male's chart, Mars reveals something about how he relates to females. In a female's chart, Mars can provide clues about the traits she finds attractive in males. Mars also represents: competitive situations, conflicts, accidents, and sexual energies.

Mars in Taurus:

Determination and endurance are key words that are appropriate for Mars in Taurus. You have an excellent follow-through which comes in very handy for any projects that you may undertake. You are quite industrious especially when your eye is fixed on material and security oriented aims.

Here is a placement where energy and fixed purpose combine. A kind of fanaticism toward an end is not out of the question.

You probably have strong physical drives, and as such you can be quite oriented toward sensation.

This placement supports the craftsperson/artisan and other professions where drive and determination combined with an aesthetic sense are necessary.

Mars in 2nd house:

You display a great deal of motivation centering around increasing your personal cash flow. Your personal liberty is very important to you and you instinctively know that money is freedom.

Impulsive spending habits will land you in financial hot water if you're not careful. You like to be generous and you know how to make a quick buck fast when your back is against the wall.

Keep your belongings in a safe and secure place.

Chapter 7: Jupiter

Jupiter is the planet of expansion and taking things beyond normal limits. It shows us where the universe allows us to indulge ourselves, and often we find that wherever it is in the chart is where things work out in our favor eventually. Some call this luck. Jupiter also represents: faith, ideas about God, abstract thinking, high ideals, and abundance.

Jupiter in Libra:

You are a born diplomat and many of the benefits in life come to you through cooperative efforts with other people. Often you will sacrifice your own personal desires in order to avoid conflicts in relationships.

There is an instinctive awareness of the principle of giving and receiving and close partnerships are advantageous for you. Beware of giving up too much of your own interests in favor of the will of others, as even though this can be an admirable trait, resentment on your part can eventually develop.

You can be extravagant, lavish and indulgent with yourself and others. You have a deep appreciation for beautiful things and you may have some artistic talents.

Jupiter in 8th house:

Other people's money can be fortunate for you. Most likely this will be through an inheritance of some sort, although it's hard to say how much.

This placement indicates that something about your personal belief system and/or your ideas about God will undergo a drastic change.

Sex and emotional expression is important to you and you will have at least one deeply intimate bonding experience with another person.

The world of metaphysics can be beneficial for you. You can combine traditional religious ideas with supernatural concepts.

Neptune Conjunct or in hard aspect to Jupiter:

Sentimental and idealistic, you often find the reality of day to day struggles difficult to bear. The best way to use this aspect is to stay tuned into universal forces that promote faith and acknowledgment of a higher power in your life. You have the ability to move beyond simple faith into the realm of true enlightenment. This a lifetime in which the stars lend encouragement where spiritual pursuits are concerned. Take some classes in meditation and learn some techniques for grounding yourself on a daily basis.

Practice dealing with mundane responsibilities while they're still molehills instead of putting them off until they turn into mountains.

Allow the imperfections of the world to stimulate practical actions for improvement. You can be a powerful force for goodness. Gurus may come and go, but remember to make your own intuition the bottom line; it will not fail you.

Pluto in soft aspect to Jupiter:

Expansiveness and intensity of purpose combine to provide you with a well-spring of power and presence from which to draw. This will aid in the realization of your plans. Even with this reserve of power behind you, you are not one to misuse this energy.

You are a seeker of truth and you remain open to complete overhauls in your belief systems, especially those that no longer serve you. You will defend your principles to the end and you have no fear when it comes to taking a stand on the side of justice.

All subjects that fall into the metaphysical/spiritual category arouse your curiosity and endeavors along these lines are definitely complemented with this aspect going for you.

Large sums of money may play a role in your life experience. These can be either generated by yourself, an inheritance or through the handling of other people's resources.

Try to resist overindulgent lifestyle habits and seek the middle path at least some of the time.

Chapter 8: Saturn

Saturn is our planet of restriction and discipline. It shows us where we may feel inadequate in some way, and thus we take this area of life very seriously because we want to perfect ourselves. Saturn also represents: life lessons to be learned, trials and tests, a strong sense of duty, and bringing ideas into material form.

Saturn in Sagittarius:

You tend to take your personal belief system, whatever it may encompass, quite seriously. Your philosophy on life must have a practical application and if it can be utilized to help you achieve some of your goals that doesn't hurt either. This placement will also tend to reinforce any leanings toward rigid and strongly held viewpoints.

This is a lifetime in which you are encouraged to stretch your mental capacities beyond so-called normal boundaries.

You will also experience many circumstances that require you to take on a good deal of responsibility and you may often feel as though your freedom is curtailed by forces beyond your control.

Reminder: you can avoid getting in your own way by refraining from imposing your beliefs on others. Set an example by living those beliefs and other people will naturally seek your input.

Walking will enhance circulation in the legs and help to prevent varicose veins and other related disorders caused by a lack of exercise.

Saturn in 9th house:

You're very earnest about your personal belief systems. At some point though, you will likely make a serious re-evaluation of some of these beliefs. You want to see God as a merciful being but you may have some deep down fears around this issue based on outworn and rigid orthodox viewpoints.

If you did miss the opportunity for formal higher education, you may be self educated. As a student you are serious and dedicated. Anything that stimulates the broadening of your horizons should be encouraged.

Chapter 9: Uranus

Uranus is a planet of unexpected change and unpredictable events. It tells us something about where we have unusual ideas and how we want to express our own unique individuality. Uranus also represents: rebelliousness, sudden awakenings, invention, progress, genius, anything "New Age," and humanitarian efforts.

Uranus in Leo:

Uranus was in the sign of Leo for approximately seven years. This means that you are part of a large group of people who will share many of the same fundamental characteristics such as the ability to be highly creative and even flamboyant. Unusual approaches to child rearing and a rebellious attitude toward rules and regulations are keynotes here.

When you read your individual house placement for Uranus, you will be able to see where these traits will express themselves on a more personal basis.

Uranus in 6th house:

You can be ingenious when it comes to the work you do. This applies mostly to jobs that you take in order to survive. Perhaps you'd like to be your own boss. That's understandable, as Uranus in this house can create many changes surrounding employment.

You either work with unusual people or you may feel as though you are the one who is always out of step with the status quo.

You can develop a talent for doing detailed work if it's something you really have an interest in and it's not too boring.

Chapter 10: Neptune

Neptune is a planet that dissolves hard and fast boundaries. It is where we don't always see things as they really are, mostly because we would rather view the world through rose-colored glasses.

With Neptune, anything becomes a possibility, especially that which we can imagine. Neptune also represents: tuning into other planes of reality, the spiritual dimensions, cosmic consciousness, movies, music, and inspired creativity.

Neptune in Scorpio:

Because Neptune stays in the same sign about fourteen years, there are many other people who will experience the same things that this placement brings to varying degrees. Some of these include: a breakdown in sexual boundaries, positive spiritual transformation or extreme confusion along those lines, and a high level of deeply perceptive insights about yourself or others.

Your house position will show where Neptune affects your life on an individual basis.

Neptune in 8th house:

At the very least, you have excellent powers of intuition that can border on being genuinely psychic. Don't be surprised if at some point in your life you experience clairvoyant dreams or visions. The things that you visualize can change your life.

It is in your best interest to keep all of your personal money matters to yourself. If financial dealings arise concerning taxes, shared resources and inheritance, be sure that everything is kept aboveboard.

Pluto in soft aspect to Neptune:

Bigotry and narrow thinking are huge turn offs for you. You lean toward a humanitarian outlook and you see the big picture, whether it applies to you or society as a whole. Mysticism, magic and the occult attract your interest and you can choose to use any knowledge gained to produce positive results.

Spirituality can undergo a complete regeneration process, and what went before will be transformed into something that doesn't even resemble the former. Usually there is a period of total chaos and confusion before order is restored.

Anything that is based on deception and pretense will be brought to light and purged accordingly. The effects of this aspect are often generational and the outcome will affect large segments of the society you live in.

Chapter 11: Pluto

Pluto is a planet that brings with it transformation. Something about the area of life that it points to will undergo a complete change. Significant lifestyle changes can happen whenever Pluto is involved. Deep, complex issues will be brought to light eventually. It is where conditions can swing from one extreme to the other. It's all or nothing.

Pluto also represents: psychological probing, keeping secrets or bringing them to light, power and control issues, obsessions, healing and purification.

Pluto in Virgo:

Pluto is the slowest moving planet, and thus is recognized as exerting a generational influence as it moves through each zodiac sign.

With Pluto in Virgo you're part of the generation that can experience radical changes in scientific discovery, the medical profession, diet and nutrition and the work ethic.

On a personal level, those with Pluto in Virgo tend to be aware of health related issues and are analytically minded, perfectionist and discerning.

Read the house placement for Pluto in your chart. It shows you an area of life where this planet has a more personal influence.

Pluto in 6th house:

You can be quite the workaholic. It is very helpful to learn to give yourself a break before your physical body forces you to stop due to exhaustion.

Jobs, especially of the sort that you must take to survive, can come and go owing to circumstances that seem beyond your control.

When you worry, you don't do it halfway. One of the things that you might worry about is your health. Hypochondria is not fun. Finding the balance is the key to physical and mental well-being. Actually, your body has a vital ability to completely heal itself. You can be a healer yourself if so inclined. Meditation might be a challenge, but you'd benefit greatly from learning to quiet the mind now and then.

Chapter 12: Elements, the North Node, and the Midheaven

In this section of the report we interpret the following astrological influences: the Moon's North Node, the MC (the 10th house cusp or Midheaven) and also a preponderance of an astrological element. A "preponderance" occurs when 4 or more planets or the Ascendant is in that element: fire, earth, air, or water. Many people do not have a heavy emphasis of a particular element so not everyone will have an interpretation of an element emphasis.

If the individual chart has aspects to the MC, these will reveal certain career options and potentials for your consideration.

The North Node is an important pointer along the pathway of life. You'll have to be willing to stretch yourself and move away from familiar patterns in order to meet the challenge of the North Node. Great rewards will be reaped in the form of personal growth and reaching your potential goals. The North Node sign will suggest an approach to the area of life represented by its house position.

North Node in Libra:

Incorporating the following traits into your life will make it easier in the long run to attain goals.

The best way to describe this principle is to imagine a bird having to leave its nest for the first time. It is extremely challenging, but it's the only way to really learn to fly.

Develop the ability to understand and appreciate opposing points of view, without necessarily giving up your own opinions. Find out that cooperation and diplomacy can help, not hinder your aims. Create the balance between what you give and what you receive. Discover that close, committed relationships between yourself and another person can benefit both of you.

North Node in 7th house:

The universe is encouraging you to play up the aforementioned traits in these areas of life.

Consider the following: perfect the art of relating to other people, especially on a one-to-one basis. You'll learn all about finding the balance between giving and receiving through close relationships, such as marriage, best friends, or even business partners. Diplomacy can become your strong point.

MC Conjunct or in hard aspect to Moon:

Professionally speaking, you'll have to learn to go with the flow, as your main career may lack stability during the first half of your life. You may be a late bloomer where career is concerned, coming into full potential later in life. You can expect a strong female influence around the question of career.

Ideally your career should be one that allows you a certain amount of emotional satisfaction. Real estate, and all options that relate to the domestic scene in general, represent career potentials. Supportive, care taking roles are favored; likewise, those in which there is considerable contact with the public.

MC in soft aspect to Venus:

Your pleasing demeanor and natural charm will boost personal career aims. You should be one of the fortunate few who manifests a way to make a living at something you really enjoy doing.

Consider a career that allows you to express your love of beauty and if artistic talents are present, one that utilizes these gifts in some way. Some career choices are in the fields of art or music or jobs such as decorator or salon service provider, to name a few options. Consider also positions where diplomacy skills can be put to use. You can make a living adding a touch of elegance, refinement and pleasure to other people's lives.

MC Conjunct or in hard aspect to Saturn:

You can lead people because you have an aura of authority and responsibility that others pick up on and your advice is often sought out by those who need what they perceive to be a reliable source of input.

Saturn aspecting your career cusp demands a kind of perfection and those who have it are often successful after deciding to persevere no matter what, through trying times and obstacles.

Suitable career options may include: politician, government worker, manager, accountant, corporate executive, construction and building worker, chiropractor, doctor, or dentist. Wherever precision combines with form, or reliable leadership qualities can be brought into play, you have a career possibility.

Four or more Fire Signs

Energetic and aggressive, in this lifetime you will learn all about inspiration, faith, and living in the moment. Your intuition is highly developed and it's not unusual for "fiery" people to see visions.

Sports and athletic events are an excellent way for you to fill your need for a challenge while satisfying your inner competitive drive.

Chapter 13: House Rulerships

This chapter deals with an Astrological technique known as House Rulers. The "houses" of the horoscope deal primarily with your earth plane experiences. As such, the tone of these interpretations may appear to be more "predictive" in nature. Not all statements will apply absolutely to your experience. Here we are exploring some of the various options that may exist in your chart based on the links between these twelve major areas of life, the Houses of the Horoscope.

Ruler of 1st house in 8th:

You may have a lot of curiosity about the so-called mysteries of life such as occult practices and other metaphysical studies. You can develop your psychic abilities or perhaps you are more drawn to the healing potential found in the eighth house.

You'll likely have an important experience that transforms your life approach in a major way. Whatever it is, you'll emerge more evolved at a very deep level of your being.

Other people's resources, such as a spouse's money, or an inheritance, could play a significant role in your life somehow.

Ruler of 2nd house in 2nd:

Your finances play an important role with regards to your personal sense of freedom. Money buys options in life and therefore a degree of liberty. It's more than likely that you place a high value on money and possessions and you have strong opinions about handling your own money.

You may also have inherited certain talents which can help increase your cash flow if tapped into and developed. Think about it.

Ruler of 3rd house in 6th:

You put a lot of energy into thinking about the work you do. You share many of your ideas with co-workers. You think and talk about your health and you can use mind over matter to influence your own well-being. Think positively. You may have a tendency to worry too much about minor details and ideas of perfection.

Transportation and travel may play a part in the work you do.

Ruler of 4th house in 6th:

Your sense of security is connected to the work you perform and something about your upbringing influenced this. Homes or some specific domestic activity could have a bearing on the work you do. On the other hand, your home may represent a lot of duty and obligation in your eyes.

If you ever considered catering or opening your own restaurant, this astrological influence supports those ideas well.

Ruler of 5th house in 1st:

Your creative abilities are reflected in your outlook on life and love and romance are life experiences you strongly identify with.

The ability to satisfactorily express your own will has a positive effect on your outlook and approach to life in general.

Your children (especially the first) are a reflection of you. Your children or children in general could be very important to you.

Ruler of 6th house in 6th:

Your work may involve helping people or performing some kind of service that they'd rather not do themselves. The work you do may also be related to the health and/or nutrition field.

You worry about your co-workers or your employees if you have them. Part-time work may appeal to you.

Ruler of 7th house in 6th:

A close friend or your spouse could become a co-worker or even an employee in some regard. You may meet your marriage partner in your work environment.

Your need for supportive relationships may be fulfilled at work or connected in some way to the work you do.

Ruler of 8th house in 6th:

Sleep plays an important role in your health both physically and mentally.

You need to have some control over the work you do, or perhaps even your co-workers and employees.

Ruler of 9th house in 6th:

Long distance travel, teaching, publishing, law or sports related fields can have a connection with the work you do.

Your philosophies on life or your spiritual beliefs must have practical application in order to appeal to you. You believe in the work ethic or perhaps in helping others in some way.

You can use your higher mind to influence the state of your health. Here is an indication that positive thinking can actually boost your well-being.

Ruler of 10th house in 8th:

Your main profession or your attitude towards it can go through a complete change. Your feelings about authority figures or even about being in a position of authority yourself will change.
