Introduction

This report is based on a positive vision of world peace, and the belief that each individual has the potential within to make a significant contribution to world peace. The basis of inner peace is self-esteem and self-knowledge, and when enough individuals are self-aware, they will act in accordance with natural laws to promote harmony around them, and the result will be world peace.

Good will win out over evil, and the goodness within yourself will manifest through your individual personality. This report is designed to draw your attention to your potential, your unique opportunities for expressing it, and your ability to bring about harmony around you. Some of your ability is based on gifts which you already have, which are easy for you to draw upon. You also have the willpower to dissolve any blockages which may be standing in the way of your clear vision of the possibilities of harmony and peace. Start with a positive attitude, and you will be favorably surprised at what you can achieve and what you can overcome. Love yourself, and you are already creating world peace.

Each person's astrological chart maps out a divinely created plan for that individual. It tells what you were put on this earth to do. You can learn what your own, unique mission is and then you can rejoice in carrying it out. The utmost good which you can imagine can become your reality. Then you can spread the good news to others and awaken them to their own, inner Light. All persons are created from the divine, and we are moving back to the divine. Life is a celebration of both our common awareness of the Light and our God-given birthright to an individual identity which is uniquely ours and which, when fully realized, will shine as its own Light and harmonize with all the other Lights on the planet. It will be like the vivid and beautiful colours of the spectrum all merging into White Light, and then radiating from the souls of all individuals at once.

Astrology is the study of the Astral Plane. The Astral Plane is the link between the everyday world of the manifested, Physical Plane and our higher planes of awareness, from which we can draw insight into how to improve our affairs in the physical realm. If we perceive a problem in the everyday world, such as a lack of peace, we cannot always solve it on that level, because the everyday world is made up of opposing polarities. We need to rise above the physical plane to see that these opposites are reconcilable. For example, if one person is male and another is female, they appear on the surface to be of opposite polarities but on the higher level, they are both human; they can communicate with each other; and they can enjoy working together for their common benefit.

Each individual has opposing polarities too, such as a right side and a left side, but through the higher awareness of our brains we get our two sides working together. Our brain has two hemispheres: The left hemisphere is responsible for logical thought and governs the right side of our body. The right hemisphere is responsible for creative, lateral thinking and rules the left side of our body. When we operate "from centre" - that is, when our higher brain gets our logical thought and our creative thought to work together harmoniously - then we come up with our best, most creatively intelligent output. When we use our full potential, when we know whom we are and believe in ourselves, then we create maximum harmony with those around us and, on the transpersonal level, we come up with our best solutions for world peace.

On the astral level each individual has command of both polarities. For example, we each have a Sun sign and a Moon sign. We also each have a Venus and a Mars sign, regardless of whether we are male or female on the physical plane. So, if we tune into whom we are astrologically, we begin to reach a level of awareness where we have transcended the polarities of the physical plane. We can see how we are each an embodiment of the harmonious balancing of polarities. We are born with this unity already in place. We just need to know how to use our Sun sign and our Moon sign, and our other planets, to our best advantage in our daily lives, so that by being our true selves, we will be bringing about peace.

Each person's method of using his or her Sun and Moon signs, and other planets, will be different, because we were each born at a different time and place on the Earth, where we're influenced by different combinations of influences by the other planets. On this astral plane, some of us will be contributing a more masculine interpretation of solar energy (if our Sun is in a fire or air sign) and the rest of us will be showing the world a more feminine way of looking at the Sun (if our Sun is in an earth or water sign). Also, depending on our Moon sign, we will each have our own way of interpreting the Moon's type of energy and, in our mission on Earth, we will be contributing this much-needed awareness to our own planet's evolution. We are all important, and we are all here to be ourselves, at our highest possible level of understanding. We are here to help our planet achieve its divine purpose, and to do so is perfectly natural to us.

Just as there are particular points of strength and prominence in your astrological chart, there are strategic points on the Earth's surface for the achievement of world peace. For example, this Report is being written in the city of Toronto which, along with London and Los Angeles, are important world energy centres (or chakras) for the development of international understanding. London is the world centre for intelligence and Los Angeles is the world centre for creativity. Toronto is the centre for unity, or creative intelligence, or the resolution of polarities. The name "Toronto" means "meeting place" in native Indian. Therefore, it is part of the mission of those who are familiar with the earth energy of Toronto to spread to the rest of the world the message that polarities can be resolved and peace can be created.

I once obtained a computer printout as to what was going on in the news on the day of my birth. It said that, on that date in 1950, Ralph Bunche received the Nobel Peace Prize. I later learned that he was one of the founders of the United Nations and that he had been successful in negotiating a truce between the Jews and the Palestinians in Israel in 1949. He did this by working very hard to listen to the points of view of both sides and looking for a common ground. He said "Talking is better than shooting". He remained calm himself and successfully brought about an armistice. Treaties were signed between Israel and each of Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria. So, the very positive message which can be brought into the present day is: Peace is possible. Differences can be overcome and understanding can be reached through conscious effort and communication. Look for what you have in common with your neighbour and build on it.

My message as an astrologer to you is: Whatever day you were born on is divinely significant. Your birth data can be the key to your realizing how important your presence in the world is. Each person is uniquely important. Within each other person we can see our own, divine essence mirrored, because what we have in common is our potential to bring out the very best in ourselves and each other.

On the day that I decided to write the World Peace Report and I began writing it, October 17,2002, there were many trine aspects, which confers harmony. I hope that your World Peace Report helps you to fully develop your potential for contributing to world peace and harmony.

Chapter 1: Rising Sign

Ascendant in Sagittarius:

Your outward personality, through which your Inner Light and all of the various planetary influences in your chart are expressed, is optimistic, generous and enthusiastic. Others would be drawn to you for positive inspiration to help them rise above their earthly problems. Your faith and your ability to see the bigger picture would inspire them to have a better philosophical outlook themselves, and to transcend the blockages standing in the way of their vision of peace.

Chapter 2: The Sun

Sun in Aquarius:

You are universally tolerant and able to make friends with anyone. You can see beyond differences, and words like "discriminate" or "fight" are not even in your vocabulary. It is important for you to nurture your ability to bring in awareness from the higher planes, so that you can live up to your great potential of showing the people of the world that peace is already a given. You would do well to choose an environment where your progressive, inventive ideas are readily accepted. Here you will feel good about your abilities and you will come up with unique, ingenious solutions. You are likely to take up unusual causes and to bring about reforms which will ensure the most good for all people.

Sun in the 2nd house:

You are able to shine in the area of connecting with the earth and being in touch with how the resources which we need to survive come from the earth. You are likely to be fortunate in the acquisition of a large amount of land, but in order to derive security and satisfaction from it, you need to connect with your inner self-confidence and stability and see how your land can make others feel secure too. For example, you could preserve it as a wildlife habitat and a source of clean drinking water, or you could undertake sustainable agriculture and grow organic foods.

Sun Conjunct Venus:

Your willpower and your ability to make peace work very well in the same direction. You can use this ability to create peace around you. You might have talent for performing peaceful songs or painting lovely pictures. You are good at teaching others that they can create peace if they make up their minds to do so. You could show them the harmonious way to do this, by encouraging their creativity and sense of beauty too.

Sun Square Saturn:

Although you may encounter many obstacles to success, you will succeed in the long run and your achievements will be lasting. You learn from facing challenges that patience is needed and that every effort counts for something, even if the results cannot be readily seen. For example, keep looking after your health and you will reach unusual longevity. Keep working to achieve peace in the world and you will eventually see that others have responded to your self-disciplined influence and that now they take getting along with each other seriously.

Chapter 3: The Moon

Moon in Sagittarius:

You have an optimistic attitude and are likely to rise above the problems of the world with faith and confidence. You likely come from a religious or traditionally philosophical background, where a positive outlook was encouraged. You have a great deal to offer others, in nurturing them and bringing out their very best potential. You would make a good healer or meditation teacher, enabling others to see the Light and do their part to uplift the planet. You set a good, inspiring example in the way you live your own life.

Moon in the 11th house:

You would feel most at home in a group, and you would be able to do a lot of good work for peace, particularly through your friendships with women. You are skilled at giving others the support they need to feel that they are equal. You likely grew up in a home where people of all backgrounds were welcome and where you could see the synergistic benefits of people working together. You might be interested in working with others on an environmental cause. At times you need to be alone to recharge your batteries and regain your own sense of whom you are as an individual, but once you have done that, you are ready to rejoin the group with even more enthusiasm.

Chapter 4: Mercury

Mercury in Aquarius:

Your inventive, scientific mind could come up with solutions for world peace which no one else has ever thought of. You might find new ways of getting people to learn and communicate by computer which would bring different sides together in totally unexpected ways. You would be good at teaching astrology. Your intuition is right on target, and you often have sudden flashes of inspiration.

Mercury in the 2nd house:

You have a quick mental grasp of many matters and may have potential as an accountant or economist. You would be able to use your financial knowledge to convince others that world peace is good for the economy, because it means that individuals could invest in a green economy and anything else which is honest and lasting.

Mercury Square Mars:

You need a peaceful outlet for your forceful verbal ability, such as standing up for those who are unable to express themselves or who have been wronged in some way. You are physically agile and you would find that you are less likely to be argumentative if you get enough exercise, especially at a competitive sport. You will get along harmoniously with others if you take the time to understand their point of view.

Mercury Trine Jupiter:

You could bring the people of various countries together by long-distance travelling for a religious or spiritual group or by being a foreign correspondent. You could do much to promote education in faraway lands. You would be a good teacher of comparative religion and of the good values which all religions have in common. You would do well as a publisher of intellectual and philosophical ideas about how to make a better world.

Mercury Opposition Pluto:

You are aware of how words have to be chosen carefully, because of their far-reaching effects. For example, if the media chooses to use positive words which have a connotation of peace, the result will be that more harmony will actually be created, because of the power of suggestion on the readers or viewers. At the same time, the truth has to be reported accurately, and this can mean having to call a spade a spade. However, this is different from sensationalism. Because you have been dealing with these types of questions all your life, you could make a positive contribution as to how reporting is done.

Chapter 5: Venus

Venus in Aquarius:

At your best, you are unusually talented at embodying the idea of universal tolerance and peace. You are very open-minded and sociable, and you win others over by your unconditional acceptance of them. You have a good intuitive sense of the ways in which everyone shares the same, underlying inner Light, and you relate to individuals on that basis, rather than on the basis of differences, and in that way you can bring everyone closer together.

Venus in the 2nd house:

Venus is the planet which rules peace and the Second House is ruled by Venus, so you are able to relate to others in a doubly peaceful way. That is, you treat others very kindly and you seek to build long-lasting, agreeable relationships with them. You are aware that people need to be financially secure in order to maintain a vision of peace, and you seek to counsel them about sound investing. You may have artistic talent and be able to paint beautiful, peaceful, nature scenes which would bring a feeling of tranquility to others.

Venus Square Saturn:

You would be good at achieving an agreement for peace because of your perseverance, willpower and diplomatic approach. If a first attempt did not succeed, you would keep trying until the parties involved were both satisfied that everything important has been included. You would be able to handle it if topics were raised where there was not yet agreement, because of your strength and patience to work through any differences.

Chapter 6: Mars

Mars in Scorpio:

You have tremendous potential for your actions to have a far-reaching effect, so the way to have the maximum positive effect, and results you will be happy with, is to make sure that your actions are divinely guided. You would have excellent results with techniques which delve deep into your subconscious and neutralize any negativity, such as deeper meditation or the development of positive willpower and self-control through the martial arts. If you first master your own, very powerful energies, your ability to transform the negativity in the world into peace will be phenomenal.

Mars in the 11th house:

You have many friends and would be very effective working in groups to promote peace. In particular, you would work to change the social conditions so that everyone can be considered as an equal. You are able to see the world as one big family and your open-minded perspective would encourage others to rise above their differences and cooperate for the common good. Make sure that you get away from the group once in a while to re-affirm your individuality, so that you will see those whom you are trying to change as individuals too, and then they will perceive you as being constructive and respond favourably.

Mars Trine Uranus:

You have very high ideals and also an ability to act quickly and wisely to put them into action. You would be very effective at cutting through any red tape to get humanitarian aid to those in need immediately. You are guided by a higher belief that all persons are equal, and that all deserve equal opportunities. You would be successful in bringing about equality, because your efforts to transcend the blockages and past patterns would be harmonious, decisive and intuitively guided.

Mars Square Pluto:

You have an unusual ability to take positive actions which will have a far-reaching effect in the world. You need to learn to control your intense energies, so that you will achieve great good rather than great harm. Seek out the best yogis, martial arts instructors and other experts in the positive development of physical energies and spiritual awareness, because you are here to fulfil a great and rare destiny. You are here to help put the planet back on its true, spiritual course and to create peace. Lead peace meditations; teach aggressive people how to take the higher road; neutralize the greatest blocks to lasting peace by bringing in the Light.

Chapter 7: Jupiter and Saturn

Jupiter in Gemini:

What a great position for leading a ministry and preaching uplifting sermons! Whatever your religious or philosophical background, learn the most inspiring, most positive teachings in it and then go forth and impart them to others. There are many who need to hear good news, and you have the ability to reach them. Make sure that, whenever there is anything you do not feel positive about yourself, you take the time for meditation or prayer, so that you can be renewed and able to spread the best truths to others.

Jupiter in the 6th house:

You would be very interested in what can be learned from different cultural and religious traditions about holistic healing. Each culture has something to contribute to our understanding of the potential unity of mind, body and spirit. Each culture has a different piece of the puzzle as to how to heal and uplift the planet. You could help many persons as a holistic practitioner, or as a health care worker in a land where your services are greatly needed.

Saturn in Scorpio:

You are very concerned that there be honesty when large amounts of money are being dealt with, and you would be good at investigating any situations where the cause of a lack of peace is that unscrupulous financial dealings are victimizing innocent people. In general, you are skilled at keeping extremes from taking over and preventing any kind of destruction on a mass level. Your upbringing may have inhibited your emotions, so make sure you rise above this and just prevent bad things rather than good things.

Saturn in the 10th house:

You are unusually hardworking, ambitious and determined. You are likely to reach the top, in a position which involves great responsibility and distinction. Make sure that you use this position to help create a better world, rather than just be attached to the authority of which you have been entrusted as the steward. Set a fine example of honesty and reliability for others, as you have a rare ability to do. You can especially inspire others during any crisis, because of your detached, calm, organized approach.

Chapter 8: Uranus, Neptune and Pluto

Uranus in Cancer:

You may be interested in the cause of the family and of the support of your own cultural group. You are also open-minded about how others may view the family, and you would be interested in linking together with other cultural groups to share the benefits of your traditions. You would have ability to help those who feel a "culture clash" between the way they were raised and the demands of modern society.

Uranus in the 7th house:

You would be interested in working on the cause of furthering peace, perhaps with a group of people concerned about legal reforms. Your approach is very intellectual and you would get along with all kinds of people. You would have a good understanding of human rights. Make sure that the theories about human rights which you learn in an intellectual setting would work in the everyday world before assuming that they would be practical, because most people do not take an intellectual approach like yours, even though they still have their own way of getting along with each other.

Neptune in Libra:

You were born at a time when people had very idealistic views of peace. They believed in compassion for the poor and the disadvantaged, and they stood up for the rights of those who could not defend themselves. They were in tune with the idea that how you treated others is ultimately how you will be treated yourself. Many of the peace negotiations were being carried out in secret, but were nevertheless taking place.

Neptune in the 10th house:

You could work at a career where you would be able to help the less fortunate and provide them with their practical needs. You could be a psychic to whom others would come for guidance about how to have a happier outlook about world events. You could work in any career where you would be setting a positive example for others as to how to be kind and compassionate.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

You were born into an age when there was a subtle awareness that world peace could be created if individuals chose in large enough numbers to treat one another with compassion and kindness. There were many spiritual visions of peace, which appeared in music, art and mass communication. The knowledge of how to bring about peace was there, but it needed to be brought down into the physical plane of actual action, for there to be enough love and spiritual regeneration in everyday life. The willpower was needed to overcome addictions and material attachments, in order to make the wisest use of the readily available, profound, channelled, higher insights.

Pluto in Leo:

You were born into a generation when people were coming to realize the intense importance of happy children. The society was geared towards child-raising, education and recreation. All of these elements contributed to a joyful, peaceful society. Mass forms of entertainment became popular such as television, which when used with spiritual guidance behind it, became a potential vehicle for peace and understanding to be spread in a pleasant way.

Pluto in the 8th house:

You would have a profound interest in life after death and the ultimate destiny of the earth. You would, therefore, see the relativity of any current conflicts and be courageous in dealing with them. Rather than be overwhelmed by the world's problems, you would see them as mere blockages to be removed in order to bring about a greater enlightenment. You would probe into what the deep, underlying blockages are to world peace and then you would seek to remove them at a mass level.

Conclusion

This report on World Peace is best utilized by those who are ready to go ahead and make a positive contribution to the world. If you find that you need to feel more secure as an individual first, before taking on the task of helping to change the world, then you may find that the Personal Security Report is more suited to your needs. The Personal Security Report addresses the issue of preventing negative outcomes. The World Peace Report takes the next step and focuses on how to manifest positive outcomes. The Personal Security Report is about undoing past karma, and the World Peace Report is about creating good karma for the future.

The outlook for world peace in the 21st century is very positive. If Ralph Bunche were able to bring about a truce in 1949, think of what many individuals working together could achieve now! He was working under pressure, but there are many persons now who are able to reflect on peaceful solutions without being under pressure. There are new technologies such as computers which can be used to bring people together. The concept of a unified world is more acceptable nowadays in people's minds and, therefore, easier to achieve. Yes, the tensions in the world may appear to be more obvious now, but that reflects the healthy process of the world's past karma unravelling, in order to pave the way for a positive, enlightened future. The World Peace Report is designed to help you discover the ways in which you can participate and contribute to world peace in this century where there is so much potential for all of us to assist in this very important endeavor.
