Introduction

This report is based on a positive vision of world peace, and the belief that each individual has the potential within to make a significant contribution to world peace. The basis of inner peace is self-esteem and self-knowledge, and when enough individuals are self-aware, they will act in accordance with natural laws to promote harmony around them, and the result will be world peace.

Good will win out over evil, and the goodness within yourself will manifest through your individual personality. This report is designed to draw your attention to your potential, your unique opportunities for expressing it, and your ability to bring about harmony around you. Some of your ability is based on gifts which you already have, which are easy for you to draw upon. You also have the willpower to dissolve any blockages which may be standing in the way of your clear vision of the possibilities of harmony and peace. Start with a positive attitude, and you will be favorably surprised at what you can achieve and what you can overcome. Love yourself, and you are already creating world peace.

Each person's astrological chart maps out a divinely created plan for that individual. It tells what you were put on this earth to do. You can learn what your own, unique mission is and then you can rejoice in carrying it out. The utmost good which you can imagine can become your reality. Then you can spread the good news to others and awaken them to their own, inner Light. All persons are created from the divine, and we are moving back to the divine. Life is a celebration of both our common awareness of the Light and our God-given birthright to an individual identity which is uniquely ours and which, when fully realized, will shine as its own Light and harmonize with all the other Lights on the planet. It will be like the vivid and beautiful colours of the spectrum all merging into White Light, and then radiating from the souls of all individuals at once.

Astrology is the study of the Astral Plane. The Astral Plane is the link between the everyday world of the manifested, Physical Plane and our higher planes of awareness, from which we can draw insight into how to improve our affairs in the physical realm. If we perceive a problem in the everyday world, such as a lack of peace, we cannot always solve it on that level, because the everyday world is made up of opposing polarities. We need to rise above the physical plane to see that these opposites are reconcilable. For example, if one person is male and another is female, they appear on the surface to be of opposite polarities but on the higher level, they are both human; they can communicate with each other; and they can enjoy working together for their common benefit.

Each individual has opposing polarities too, such as a right side and a left side, but through the higher awareness of our brains we get our two sides working together. Our brain has two hemispheres: The left hemisphere is responsible for logical thought and governs the right side of our body. The right hemisphere is responsible for creative, lateral thinking and rules the left side of our body. When we operate "from centre" - that is, when our higher brain gets our logical thought and our creative thought to work together harmoniously - then we come up with our best, most creatively intelligent output. When we use our full potential, when we know whom we are and believe in ourselves, then we create maximum harmony with those around us and, on the transpersonal level, we come up with our best solutions for world peace.

On the astral level each individual has command of both polarities. For example, we each have a Sun sign and a Moon sign. We also each have a Venus and a Mars sign, regardless of whether we are male or female on the physical plane. So, if we tune into whom we are astrologically, we begin to reach a level of awareness where we have transcended the polarities of the physical plane. We can see how we are each an embodiment of the harmonious balancing of polarities. We are born with this unity already in place. We just need to know how to use our Sun sign and our Moon sign, and our other planets, to our best advantage in our daily lives, so that by being our true selves, we will be bringing about peace.

Each person's method of using his or her Sun and Moon signs, and other planets, will be different, because we were each born at a different time and place on the Earth, where we're influenced by different combinations of influences by the other planets. On this astral plane, some of us will be contributing a more masculine interpretation of solar energy (if our Sun is in a fire or air sign) and the rest of us will be showing the world a more feminine way of looking at the Sun (if our Sun is in an earth or water sign). Also, depending on our Moon sign, we will each have our own way of interpreting the Moon's type of energy and, in our mission on Earth, we will be contributing this much-needed awareness to our own planet's evolution. We are all important, and we are all here to be ourselves, at our highest possible level of understanding. We are here to help our planet achieve its divine purpose, and to do so is perfectly natural to us.

Just as there are particular points of strength and prominence in your astrological chart, there are strategic points on the Earth's surface for the achievement of world peace. For example, this Report is being written in the city of Toronto which, along with London and Los Angeles, are important world energy centres (or chakras) for the development of international understanding. London is the world centre for intelligence and Los Angeles is the world centre for creativity. Toronto is the centre for unity, or creative intelligence, or the resolution of polarities. The name "Toronto" means "meeting place" in native Indian. Therefore, it is part of the mission of those who are familiar with the earth energy of Toronto to spread to the rest of the world the message that polarities can be resolved and peace can be created.

I once obtained a computer printout as to what was going on in the news on the day of my birth. It said that, on that date in 1950, Ralph Bunche received the Nobel Peace Prize. I later learned that he was one of the founders of the United Nations and that he had been successful in negotiating a truce between the Jews and the Palestinians in Israel in 1949. He did this by working very hard to listen to the points of view of both sides and looking for a common ground. He said "Talking is better than shooting". He remained calm himself and successfully brought about an armistice. Treaties were signed between Israel and each of Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria. So, the very positive message which can be brought into the present day is: Peace is possible. Differences can be overcome and understanding can be reached through conscious effort and communication. Look for what you have in common with your neighbour and build on it.

My message as an astrologer to you is: Whatever day you were born on is divinely significant. Your birth data can be the key to your realizing how important your presence in the world is. Each person is uniquely important. Within each other person we can see our own, divine essence mirrored, because what we have in common is our potential to bring out the very best in ourselves and each other.

On the day that I decided to write the World Peace Report and I began writing it, October 17,2002, there were many trine aspects, which confers harmony. I hope that your World Peace Report helps you to fully develop your potential for contributing to world peace and harmony.

Chapter 1: Rising Sign

Ascendant in Libra:

Your outward personality, through which your Inner Light and all of the various planetary influences in your chart are expressed, is sociable, fair and kind. Others would tend to look to you as a peace-maker, because they see you as a creator of harmony and agreeable compromise. You would be reassuring to them that peace is possible, because you are willing to listen to both sides and bring them closer together. You would have a positive influence on them because they would learn from you how to be better mediators themselves and how to be kinder and fairer to each other.

Chapter 2: The Sun

Sun in Pisces:

As long as you nurture your emotions and take good care of your health, you will be able to channel in the highest, Neptunian energy to save the planet and elevate it to a new plane. If you are feeling as if you are overwhelmed by depressing thoughts about the state of the world, know that this is just a sign of your wonderful and unequalled compassion for other people. That is, you have already been absorbing much of their stress for them, in the most unselfish way. However, you can do even better than that, by realizing that your greatest psychic achievements can come when you are feeling strong and nurtured yourself, rather than when you are attached to any negative, unspiritual illusions. Start with one, positive thought and keep building on that until all you see is the pure Light coming in.

Sun in the 5th house:

What a wonderful position for spreading the joy of living! You would be good at leading children's recreational activities and teaching them that life is meant for positive creativity and peaceful, happy pursuits. You would be great as an entertainer or stage performer, bringing humour, warmth and liveliness to people everywhere. Your leadership qualities would be needed and appreciated in many capacities, particularly where you could awaken others to participate and discover how they can create their own happiness.

Sun Trine Neptune:

You have the potential to lead others spiritually and to inspire them to undertake a more compassionate way of life. You could reach people's ability to be caring with your musical, artistic or acting talent. Or, you could provide them with channelled insights from great spiritual leaders of the past. Your confidence in your own caring nature provides a positive example for others that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

Chapter 3: The Moon

Moon in Aries:

You tend to act impulsively based on your emotions, but if you are living in the Light, this can be a positive thing. That is, if your right-brain is highly developed and you are in tune with your higher intuition the sudden actions you take will be divinely inspired. For example, you would trust your own intuition to tell you that the people who say that there cannot be world peace are wrong, and you would go ahead and take constructive action. You are naturally positive and cheerful in your emotions, and you are able to lift others out of their tendency to wallow in the negativity of the past and to get them to see that every day is a new day.

Moon in the 7th house:

Peace and harmony are very important to your emotional security, and you have an unusual potential for creating the nurturing conditions needed for peace-making. You can learn much about how to do this by having a secure marriage. You would have excellent ability as a marriage counsellor. You realize that maintaining peace in your homeland is based on how individuals treat each other, and if kindness can be spread, the result of enough people caring about each other will be peace.

Moon Trine Uranus:

You are very generous at making others in need feel as if they have home-like conditions, such as a place where they can come to worship and socialize, an affordable housing project where they can live, or a food bank where they can get food. You understand that people have changes in their lives when they need to be nurtured and helped into a new and better situation. You like change yourself, because it is exciting and enlivening, and you enjoy meeting people from different backgrounds and helping them.

Chapter 4: Mercury

Mercury in Pisces:

Provided that you keep your thoughts clear of any distorting influences, you have the potential to speak as a clear channel of the Divine Light. This talent is both very fulfilling to you and very much needed by the world, so make sure that you practise some means of meditation or subconscious clearing regularly. Rise above any tendency towards depression, alcohol or drugs to express your true, inner compassion for others in the way which will most help them. Find a quiet setting where your thoughts can be clearer.

Mercury in the 6th house:

You would have much to contribute to world peace, particularly in the health field. You are likely to study hard and acquire a very detailed knowledge of a specialized area such as holistic health care, accounting or astrology. You would then have credibility in telling others that, even if it will take a lot of work to achieve world peace, it is well worth the effort, and that the possibilities for world peace are very practical.

Mercury Square Jupiter:

You have many idealistic thoughts and a drive to uplift others with your positive outlook. In order to take full advantage of this ability, you would do well to apply your willpower towards higher education or other spiritual studies. As you tend to be assertive in promoting your ideas, make sure that you listen to what others have to say too, so that there can be a peaceful, mutual exchange. If you work at it, you may be very successful in publishing ideas which would contribute to the intellectual and spiritual advancement of the world.

Chapter 5: Venus

Venus in Aquarius:

At your best, you are unusually talented at embodying the idea of universal tolerance and peace. You are very open-minded and sociable, and you win others over by your unconditional acceptance of them. You have a good intuitive sense of the ways in which everyone shares the same, underlying inner Light, and you relate to individuals on that basis, rather than on the basis of differences, and in that way you can bring everyone closer together.

Venus in the 4th house:

You are likely to have a very peaceful, nurturing home and a close tie to your ancestors. Your children would learn from you, beginning at a very young age, to create security and peace in their lives. They would value a peaceful world because they in turn, could pass it onto their children. You are careful about saving enough money so that you and your loved ones will always have what they need.

Venus Conjunction Mars:

Venus rules peace and Mars rules war, so your efforts to help with world peace very directly involve the neutralization and diversion of aggressive energies. The energy of Mars, when constructively expressed, can bring physical action, so it can be applied to the actual implementation of peace, rather than just talking about it. Venus and Mars balance each other, each providing the other with what is needed to move up into a higher plane where polarities no longer exist, so Venus can neutralize Mars without Mars's aggression having to physically manifest.

Venus Square Neptune:

You have an unusual ability to show others by your fine example that the highest form of transcendental love and giving can be manifested in actual, physical actions on the earth. Peace can be created by not just preaching about how it is more blessed to give than to receive, but by actually taking one's own wealth and sharing it with those most in need. For example, you might work for a food bank or build housing for the poor.

Chapter 6: Mars

Mars in Aquarius:

You highly value freedom, and you are willing to work on the cause of ensuring it. To reach your very high potential for success in this area, begin by removing any restrictions to freedom within yourself. That is, identify any subconscious beliefs which you may have picked up which no longer serve you well and replace these core beliefs with positive, open-minded ones. Then, when you go to help others attain inner and outer freedom, you will be guiding them to something genuinely better rather than just taking out any unidentified restrictions within yourself on others. In this way, you will ensure that you are creating peace.

Mars in the 4th house:

You are a staunch defender of your family and culture, and you could achieve a great deal towards protecting your traditions. This is a good quality, provided that you remember that other people have their families and their traditions too, and that they are really just like you in terms of how they feel. Try to find a peaceful way in which everyone's way of life can be protected equally.

Mars Square Neptune:

On one hand, you want to express yourself in the everyday, physical realm and, on the other, you have a very creative imagination and psychic receptivity. The challenge for you is to get these two, very different types of energy to work together. If you remember that your creative and healing gifts were given to you to express your compassion for the world and to uplift it, you will see that your anchor in the physical realm is a great asset, because it allows you to reach the people for whom you have compassion.

Chapter 7: Jupiter and Saturn

Jupiter in Sagittarius:

Because Jupiter rules Sagittarius, you have a double Jupiterian influence here, which gives you remarkable ability to understand the highest religious, spiritual and metaphysical truths. Your optimism and awareness have the potential to raise the vibration of the planet! Make sure that you live according to your highest ideals, high above the level of self-indulgence or waste. Pursue your love of travel to other lands to conduct peace meditations, to visit the locations with the most positive spiritual energy, to bring people together in meditation and prayer, and to inspire them to create world peace from their own, divine awareness.

Jupiter in the 3rd house:

You have a remarkable talent for promoting education, and you are well aware that expanding people's minds is an important key to peace. You would do well at teaching, publishing or creating educational opportunities in other lands. You would especially be interested in studies of languages, cultures, religions, and philosophies. Because you would likely be very knowledgeable about comparative religion, you could find ways to get the followers of different beliefs to communicate with each other better.

Jupiter Trine Pluto:

You have a rare awareness of the good news that faith can transform the earth and put people back on their intended path of living in harmony with the Creator. Your meditations and prayers can have a mass, transformative effect. You can reach large numbers of people with the message that, if they live good lives, the effect of many people all doing that will be peace on the planet. You could reach others with faith healing, published works, sermons, foreign travels, and large, group events.

Saturn in Capricorn:

You have an unusual talent for organization and practical self-discipline, and you remain calm and above any emotional changes. These qualities would make you very effective in any peacekeeping project. You are fair and unbiased in your treatment of everyone, because you have a capacity for following the agreed-upon rules, rather than be swayed by any unpredictable factors. Make sure that you deal with any feelings you may have about being treated too strictly in your childhood, so that you will not be too strict with others, and so that you will be a happier person.

Saturn in the 4th house:

You are very reliable in protecting the security of your family. You realize that world peace is a vital element in ensuring your family's safe future and you are, therefore, very committed to maintaining peace and not letting people's emotions run away with them. You do this by setting a good example yourself of obeying the laws and quietly providing food and shelter for your family and working very hard.

Chapter 8: Uranus, Neptune and Pluto

Uranus in Leo:

You would make a good leader because you would have both the self-confidence to lead and the awareness that everyone is equally important. You would, therefore, attract followers for democratic ideas. You would be an enthusiastic participant in the cause of having an enlightened, peaceful and happier world.

Uranus in the 11th house:

As Uranus rules the Eleventh House, you are very focused in your humanitarianism; willingness to work with groups of people to achieve greater equality; and ability to introduce new, inventive ideas. You have sudden flashes of genius and intuitive insight from the higher planes which enable you to see far beyond barriers or restrictions to a more peaceful, egalitarian world. You might be able to discover brand, new ways of using computers to bring the people of the world closer together.

Neptune in Scorpio:

You were born into a generation of people who were concerned about contacting their deeper emotions and accepting even the most challenging aspects of themselves. This, in its own way, was a process of developing greater tolerance and love for people of all types. There was increased awareness that compassion, rather than attempted suppression, was the way to reach even the worst offenders, whose intense energies could be turned around from doing great bad to doing great good.

Neptune in the 2nd house:

You are able to use your psychic ability to attract money, and you would share it with those most in need. You are able to visualize peace very clearly and to act in ways to bring it about at the concrete level. You know that peace can come about only if people act at the highest, compassionate level and if they are willing to do what they believe in.

Pluto in Virgo:

You were born at a time when holistic health care became popular, and individuals took control of their own physical, emotional and spiritual health. Transformational health techniques from around the world were explored and practised. This trend set the stage for individuals realizing that, if they could heal themselves, they could also heal the planet. There were also great advances in world health care, such as individuals helping others in different countries to enjoy better health and to have more say in the health matters which affected them.

Pluto in the 11th house:

You have a strong ability to bring about intense changes and reforms, both within yourself and in the world around you. Because you are unique as an individual, you need the opportunity to explore your personal potential and the various holistic healing strategies, however unusual, which would set free your intuitive inventive mind. Once having seen all of the positive possibilities for your own enlightenment, you could embark on a mission of changing the world for the better. You could create scientific inventions, free oppressed people, teach meditation groups on world healing, or be an energy healer who could transform the auras of many individuals.

Conclusion

This report on World Peace is best utilized by those who are ready to go ahead and make a positive contribution to the world. If you find that you need to feel more secure as an individual first, before taking on the task of helping to change the world, then you may find that the Personal Security Report is more suited to your needs. The Personal Security Report addresses the issue of preventing negative outcomes. The World Peace Report takes the next step and focuses on how to manifest positive outcomes. The Personal Security Report is about undoing past karma, and the World Peace Report is about creating good karma for the future.

The outlook for world peace in the 21st century is very positive. If Ralph Bunche were able to bring about a truce in 1949, think of what many individuals working together could achieve now! He was working under pressure, but there are many persons now who are able to reflect on peaceful solutions without being under pressure. There are new technologies such as computers which can be used to bring people together. The concept of a unified world is more acceptable nowadays in people's minds and, therefore, easier to achieve. Yes, the tensions in the world may appear to be more obvious now, but that reflects the healthy process of the world's past karma unravelling, in order to pave the way for a positive, enlightened future. The World Peace Report is designed to help you discover the ways in which you can participate and contribute to world peace in this century where there is so much potential for all of us to assist in this very important endeavor.
