 Chapter 1 *****
Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Leo

You were born under the sign of LEO and your ruling planet is the Sun, which endows you with great personal pride, authority and vitality.

Your Sun sign is FIXED and this impels you to fulfill an organizing function, either in thought or action. Your attitude is firm, persistent, stable and decisive. You have the ability to concentrate profoundly on your projects and to stay firm in your purposes. You enjoy organizing enterprises and directing others. In spite of this, you will have to cultivate a certain flexibility to avoid obstinacy and selfishness.

Leo is a FIRE sign and this will make you enthusiastic, ardent, proud and spontaneous; a pioneer undertaking enterprises with certain risks and seeking recognition from others. You have a strong will and great ambitions and are never satisfied with less. The fire element impels you to fight determinedly for your ideal, which sometimes may cause you to become aggressive, nervous or a tyrant.

You are very noble and will always act with integrity and honesty. You exhibit great personal assurance and ability to project, which will make you a leader in any area. You are very idealistic and also will defend another's honor or anyone who suffers some injustice. You live your life with great intensity and may be dramatic in expressing your emotions. You always want to be the center of attention and get bored when you are alone or withdraw.

You are very creative and always give your personal touch to anything you do. You are likely to stand out in any social or artistic activity. You like to share your achievements and your generosity is limitless, especially with those you admire or love. Others will seek you out because of your great sense of humor, the strength you convey and your personal ability, although this could also make you the target of criticism and envy.

You were born to occupy influential and important positions in life. Your words, your image and your ideas will be convincing and will serve as a guide for a lot of people. You were born to direct, to command, to lead, to impose justice, to create, to express and to communicate. One of your missions in life is to teach others to work for their own ambitions and happiness. Your personal pride will teach others that real love starts within oneself; your positive attitude, optimism and happiness will indicate your way of achieving your goals.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to control your pretensions, selfishness, excessive seductiveness, manipulateness, and the tendency to exaggerate and to create dramas when they do not exist. You will have to find a way not to depend so much on the approval of others and to conquer the fear of ridicule. It is important to avoid having arrogant attitudes, feeling slighted or being authoritative, and you also will have to control your inclination toward luxuries and showing off.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Sagittarius

Others see you as a lively, happy and very spontaneous person. You leave a share of your humor and friendliness in every place you visit.

You have a very jovial and youthful attitude that will make you appear younger than you actually are. You are very curious and want to know everything that is going on around you. This allows you to act freely and to easily relate to people. A bit naive and easily influenced, you have to try to surround yourself with positive people. Because you like adventure, you quickly get excited about new projects, but also abandon them just as fast, if you get bored or lose interest. The same could happen in your romantic as well as your professional life. You will have to learn to control impulsiveness to avoid future problems. You are idealistic and support just causes. You also like to take trips, especially to strange and distant places.

The profession you choose will have to stimulate your desire for expansion and growth, satisfy your desire for conquest, recognition and finding pleasure. Avoid very sedentary and routine jobs, or those where you will be submitted to very limiting authority.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Aries

Your emotions are intense, fiery and at the same time quickly changing. You are very enthusiastic about everything that has to do with adventure, risk, challenge, novelty and where you could display your courage, vitality and strength. You are not very affectionate and you are not one to hide your feelings. When you love someone, you have no limits. You like to protect and offer yourself wholeheartedly without requesting anything in return, but in the end wait for recognition of your efforts. Your personal pride is very strong and you react to every little thing, but you never hold a grudge toward anyone. Once past the initial irritation, you easily forget what has happened. You are very independent and need action in your life. You pay little attention to details and disregard any advice.

Subconsciously, you have a strong survival instinct and feel that any disagreement or opposition is a threat to your goals, which leads you to act aggressively. In previous lives you may have had to act quickly or perform strenuous activities that required great physical effort on your part. You may have been involved in martial arts or sports and because of this, you have not developed diplomacy, tact, or patience to express your emotions, and those are the qualities you will have to incorporate in this incarnation. You also have to learn to work with equipment, and with other people and to overcome selfishness.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to have power, to be independent, a leader and a pioneer. It will have to give you the possibility of showing your values and strong will.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Virgo

You have a very analytical and logical mind which allows to see the details of each situation. You are very intelligent and have the ability to understand difficult and abstract problems. You look for perfection in everything you do, but if you feel that you cannot achieve it, you will quit. You are very devoted to studies, especially when you feel that you are studying a useful and practical subject. You have a very critical vision of the world and are very demanding with your job as well as with your personal relationships; you easily discover the mistakes or weaknesses of others.

Your way of communicating could be quite limited because you are very shy. Your logical and impersonal mind tends to make you impartial and detached. You may have a lot of interest in scientific and research projects, in medicine, hygiene, nutrition, mathematics, etc. Also, your penchant for observation will allow you to capture the characteristic behavior of people around you, and you enjoy doing imitations of them. You are very honest, but may be intolerant with less intelligent people or you may become too skeptical.

 Chapter 2 *****
Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 8th house:

Your success is related to the possessions and financial administration of other people, or making investments or transactions with others. Very perceptive and intuitive, you also may be interested in the hidden sciences and the mysteries of life, which may incline you to investigate. You have to learn to rely on your instincts and impressions.

Throughout your life you are likely to receive legacies that will benefit your personal estate; these could come through an inheritance or through marriage.

Sun Trine Saturn:

You are responsible and have a strong sense of loyalty that is not altered with time. You rely on your patience and have the necessary perseverance to evolve in life. Your progress in life is likely to be gradual and prospering. Over time you will reach great personal maturity that will allow you to act with moderation and balance in every situation.

Sun Sextile Pluto:

You have great physical energy and are likely to be a leader in everything you become involved with. A constructive person, you use all of your strength in a positive way. Throughout your professional life you probably will experience some total and drastic changes that will make you feel better and more liberated each time. You can rely on strong powers of recuperation in case of a crisis or illness.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 5th house:

You are likely to be very inventive and could excel in a career in teaching, sports or the theater. You have a great deal of charm and can get along well with people, especially children.

Moon Trine Mars:

You undertake your endeavors with great enthusiasm and your energy seems to be contagious. You are constructive, decisive and make your decisions rapidly. Others will rely on you and seek your support. You tend to have an abundance of physical energy which makes you qualified for activities that require physical effort.

Moon Trine Uranus:

You have a modern and futuristic vision of life and because of this, you act freely and dismiss the old taboos or traditions that would limit you. Very innovative, you will project your individual style. You are very intuitive and can clearly perceive the feelings of others or the possible success of an enterprise. You also are attracted to the hidden sciences and could become a very good astrologer.

Moon Sextile Neptune:

Throughout your life you are likely to have many psychic experiences. You have to learn to rely on your intuition and to develop your spirituality. You are attracted to the hidden sciences and will have great success in anything where you could apply your perceptive powers. You also have ability for music, art, the theater and dance.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Scorpio on 12th house cusp

You will have to learn to discharge your aggressiveness constructively and positively. You are endowed with a wealth of physical energy and it is important that you keep your body in action, because otherwise your anxiety will increase. If you don't thoroughly use your impulses or energy, you will run the risk of leaving many of your projects incomplete. You also tend to neglect the dictates of your intuition and your ability to develop yourself in the world of metaphysics or the hidden sciences.

Throughout your life you are likely to have some jealous or violent encounters that will stop your progress. You may have to face secret or powerful enemies or in other areas of your life, you may have serious problems or fraudulent judgements.

 Chapter 3 *****
Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Virgo

Your sense of expansion can conflict with certain limits and restrictions. You may have developed a constructive sense of duty, learning to assume responsibilities and making useful things for the world, and your material success is based on these principles. However, you can be quite shy and tend to dismiss your own abilities. It is important that you learn to let your idealism develop freely and to rely on your own initiative. You are comfortable working for others and fulfilling your duties.

Jupiter in 9th house:

You are interested in religion and philosophy, enjoy life abroad, other countries, cultures and languages, and definitely should travel. You would be very happy and could do well in a different country from that of your birth. If you don't settle in another place, you thoroughly enjoy each of your trips. A college education will be very important in your life; you could reach a doctorate or other outstanding title in your profession. Expansion of your life is related to the level of your knowledge.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Aries

The inhibition principle affects your expression of authority. You may have a lot of energy contained or pent-up that needs to be channeled. You are egocentric and find it difficult to recognize the rights of others. Your inner fears incline you to seek safety. In time you will learn to become an independent person, not to wait for others' approval, and to make decisions on your own. You will also be very cautious and careful, and prefer orderly activities that clearly define what is right and what is wrong. To eliminate negative energies accumulated in your body, physical exercise, sports or gymnastics is recommended.

Saturn in 4th house:

You feel responsible and are concerned about everything that relates to your home. In spite of feeling independent, you are afraid of leaving your parental home (if you already have done so) and also your past. You will be much happier away from your place of birth and could achieve more material success farther away. Your principal frustration may manifest through your excessive desire to please others, especially your parents. They may have been too strict and conservative, yet constantly imposed many responsibilities on you. You need a more intense emotional support to overcome your lack of affection and to increase your self-esteem.

Saturn Square Venus:

You tend to feel unloved or rejected by or indifference from one of your parents (probably your father). This makes you shy and unable to demonstrate your emotions freely, and minimizes your ability to progress in life. Chronically discontented, you often sacrifice happiness for duty. You tend to be on the defensive and fear rejection and lack of acceptance. If you don't overcome your inner complex, this aspect could bring sentimental as well as economical failures and loneliness. To solve this problem, you have to evaluate each one of your talents, increase your ability to love, and rely on each of your goals without waiting for approval from others.

Saturn Trine Sun:

You have a good sense of organization and are able to direct your energies adequately to achieve success in life. You are stable, responsible and persevering. This astrological aspect enables you to achieve your goals thanks to your ability to concentrate and the confidence you have in yourself. You have a true sense of authority, which allows you to exercise it naturally. You will have good relationships with older people or those in powerful positions.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

* Chapter 4 *******
Finances, source of income.
Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Capricorn on 2nd house cusp

Thanks to constant work, your financial progress in life will be slow and progressive. It is associated with an increase of maturity over time and because of this, you are likely to have some limitations, fluctuations or delays in material matters. You can excel in executive positions, in organization or in positions where you assume large responsibilities. You will have to learn to manage your own possessions and earnings, and also to save for the future; that way you will avoid suffering reverses or difficulties.

If you don't maintain your self-esteem and high confidence, you may suffer financial frustrations and seek protection from your close relatives. You have to rely on your own initiative.

Ruler of 2nd house in 4th house:

Your income is related to your home, the city where you reside, and also to real estate in general. You may work out of your home or in professions such as interior decorator, gardener, farmer or real estate ventures.
