Introduction to Karmic Astrology

The effects of past life experiences can carry over into your current life, accounting for interests, habits, even phobias which would defy explanation by conventional methods.

This report examines possible past life connections using astrological methods. It is not intended to be taken as a complete interpretation of your birth chart; it looks at your chart from only one perspective.

It is written in simple language, avoiding the use of astrological terms as much as possible. For the interest of students of astrology, relevant astrological references are made at the top of each section.

There are certain factors which indicate a need to seek further answers through past life regression. If you find reference to this within your chart, you may discover that your spiritual growth will be enhanced by using this method. (Note: Individuals with a number of these indicators in the chart have probably already experienced spontaneous regressions.)

Not all charts will indicate a need for regressions. If your report does not indicate such a need, then it is most likely that discovering your past lives through regression is of little interest to you this time around.

Thank you for your order!

Chapter 1: Most Important Prior Life Experiences

In traditional astrology, the Twelfth House represents your self-undoing, hidden matters and the subconscious process. It is believed that we carry karmic memories in our subconscious, and that these subconscious memories can undermine our current life efforts.

When we remove the walls created by subconscious fears and guilt, we find that the path to personal transformation lies beyond.

If, in your chart you find a number of descriptions of planets placed in your twelfth house, consider exploring your hidden self through past life regression.

12th house cusp in Sagittarius

You have a strong sense of morality which is not obvious to the outer world. You set very high standards of personal conduct. You can be very harsh on yourself for even the slightest transgression. You may become overly optimistic about unsound ideas or projects.

Look for a significant prior lifetime where traditional religious beliefs were honored. Consider your current attitudes towards traditional religion. Possible prior fields of endeavor include the ministry, or being part of a religious governing body, aviation, merchant shipping, teaching or the legal profession.

Sagittarius 12th House, Sagittarius Rising

You have a great deal of optimism and ambition. Mixed with your jovial, optimistic exterior is a certain amount of self-centeredness. Your prior life's religious inclinations have been replaced by a broader philosophical point of view.

Chapter 2: Saturn (The Great Teacher)

The source of many of our self-imposed restrictions can be found in the placement of the planet Saturn. The location of Saturn in a horoscope represents the area of life where we have to learn the greatest lessons. It is through these lessons that we grow and improve.

Just like your least liked teacher in school, Saturn's lessons require hard work and self-discipline. And like the lessons from that teacher, Saturn's lessons are not easily forgotten. The lessons you learn help you to find order and security in your current life.

When a lesson from a prior life was not learned, you can experience inexplicable guilt or self-restriction. Exploration of the unlearned lessons of Saturn can free you to use all of your natural talents.

Saturn in 4th House

Real estate or family property can be a heavy burden for you. Family responsibilities restrict you from achievement due to the energies spent caring for parents who in your youth were restrictive and possibly undemonstrative.

There may be a parent from a prior life is a family member in this one, usually the opposite sex parent. In your prior life, this parent was either restrictive or unloving. In this life, you feel that you must maintain distance in order to hold on to your personal freedom.

On the positive side, you can fulfill your family obligations out of love instead of a sense of obligation. On the negative side, you may avoid any family responsibilities to either your parents or your children, or you may base your actions solely on convention or duty.

When you discover the nature of your distant feelings between you and your parent, you will be able to evaluate your attitudes toward your family obligations.

Saturn Square Venus:

A sense of duty was the reason for maintaining partnerships in prior lifetimes. This time, you find it difficult to accept the gift of love and consequently may feel very lonely. When you learn to appreciate your loved ones for whom they are, you will diminish feeling of isolation. Much of your stress in this life comes from relationships, either family or work, and you tend to direct that stress inward.

Saturn Trine Sun:

Duty to yourself and to others has been balanced in prior lifetimes, making you self-confident and assured in this one. Your past life memories help you to be a natural leader. Your leadership always has a practical nature, expressing your well-thought analysis of any problem. You work hard for all that you receive.

Chapter 3: Jupiter (Your Karmic Gifts)

Personal karma is not necessarily negative. You bring to this life certain talents and interest which enable you to expand your horizons. Often overlooked for its karmic value, the placement of the planet Jupiter in your chart can tell you about your karmic gifts.

Jupiter describes spiritual rewards as well as the area of your current life where you may experience material gains.

The lesson of Jupiter is best described as the acceptance of the law of karma. The rewards you reap in this life time come from your prior life's good deeds, and your future benefits (this life or another) are the rewards of your present fair dealings and generosity.

Jupiter in Libra

Fairness, justice and social harmony are your goals brought over from a prior life.

You are generous with your considerations of others' needs, so you are well-liked. An ideal marriage for you would be with someone who shares your sense of social justice. Your prior life spent promoting justice and morality is expressed by your interest in religious charities, educational foundations and concern for the socially disadvantaged.

Jupiter in 9th House

You love travel, foreign countries, higher education and philosophic thought. In a prior life you were prominent in a traditional religious organization and your progressive and tolerant attitudes helped to bring a sense of humanity to the organization. Your gift from the prior life is that of continued tolerance and broad-mindedness.

Jupiter Sextile Venus:

Generosity to friends and partners in prior lifetimes has given you the opportunity to act positively in personal relationships in this lifetime. Since relationships are constantly changing, you understand the need to continue to work to improve your existing ones. Your sense of humor carries you through the rough patches.

Chapter 4: Nodes of the Moon (Your Karmic Doorways)

The point on a horoscope chart called the North Node of the Moon is not actually a planet, but can be thought of as a doorway from your current life to your future. And, its opposite point (the South Node of the Moon) can be thought of as a doorway from your past life to your current one.

These two sensitive points can show you what goals you are concerned with in this life and what habits from prior lives are holding you back from reaching those goals.

North Node of the Moon in Taurus

You have gone through extreme, sometimes violent, transformations in prior lives. This has left you with a feeling of being off balance, each crisis pulling the rug out from under you.

In a past life (or number of past lives), you have abused your talents and personal powers to the detriment of those around you. This may have the effect of finding many people who express a violent dislike for you without any visible reason. They will appear whenever you allow your ego to rule your desires.

There are possible lifetimes spent as a revolutionary and most people with this placement have experienced the forces of witchcraft. Other possible past lifetimes were as detective, spy, researcher or alchemist.

Your stubborn traits from your past continue to haunt you. On the outside, you are friendly, peaceful and easy going. Yet, let someone cross you and you unleash a sting with such intensity that you can frighten even yourself.

In order to maintain balance between your two karmic doorways, learn to accept and harness the power within. Focus on using your great inner resources to make this world a better place to live and, accept that the universe is abundant enough to provide for all your needs and then some.

Chapter 5: Planets in Retrograde (Reversed Energies)

Planets in a horoscope chart which are marked as being in retrograde motion, hide or reverse the true energy of that planet.

From a perspective of past life experiences, this usually means that some experience in a prior lifetime was so negative that the individual refuses to use that planetary energy in any manner.

Saturn Retrograde

You have a great deal of inner reserve. You are very serious about completing everything you start, sometimes when better judgment would recommend abandoning a project. You have always appeared mature beyond your years.

In a prior life, you avoided or were unable to fulfill your responsibilities, thus leaving many things undone or partially complete.

Your lesson in this lifetime is complete your projects and live up to your responsibilities. You have a great deal of wisdom from prior life experiences which will help you to teach others the value of completion.

Uranus Retrograde

Outwardly, you may look very conventional. Inwardly, you are unconventional. You may express your uniqueness through your ideas or your behavior. Your ideas are often so far into the future that others find you difficult to understand. You may find it difficult to stay in one place for long, or at one job, or have the same friends for long. You are in a constant state of flux, but it is directed to your inner (spiritual) being.

In a prior life, you may have exercised your freedom, without concern for the feelings or welfare of others. You may have been a revolutionary or just in the avant-garde.

Your lesson in this lifetime is to carry yourself and others forward, but with a gentler touch. Progress and advancement can be achieved when people want it, not when it is forced upon them.

Your birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth. For the benefit of students of astrology, these positions, along with other technical information, are listed below:
