REVELATION: THE NEW ASTROLOGY

INTRODUCTION

"I can't help it. I'm an Aries. Of COURSE I have a temper." "The Moon was in Taurus. It triggered my sweet tooth. I HAD to have dessert." "Mars squared my ascendant, so of COURSE I got angry."

We've all made statements like these and, in essence, blamed the planets for our actions and the events in our lives. We look to the stars for guidance, praise them when we do well, and blame them when things don't go the way we'd like. Don't the stars affect our lives? Don't they influence us? The stars do not MAKE us do anything any more than seeing a great pair of shoes in a store window MAKES you run in and buy them, or passing a restaurant when you are hungry MAKES you rush inside and grab a meal. There is a synchronicity to the universe that puts you intuitively in tune with the world around you. Subconsciously, you give and receive messages that guide and direct you to your spoken or unspoken goal, thus creating those events and circumstances that fulfill your desires. You, then, are the Creator of your life. You created being at the restaurant when you were hungry so that you could eat. YOU were the cause, not the restaurant. Similarly, you created being in front of the store window in order to see the shoes. YOU were the Creator, not the shoes.

In the winter, the leaves fall from the trees. At the same time, we put on heavier clothing. The falling leaves do not MAKE us put on heavier clothing; the cold weather does. We and the trees are responding to the same cause---the change of seasons. As part of God's plan, we, and all of nature, are responding to the larger order of things. So, too, in astrology, the planets reflect what is occurring in our personal worlds and the lessons we are learning. They are not the lessons themselves, but the reflections thereof.

REVELATION: THE NEW ASTROLOGY is the implementation of the knowledge that you are the Creator of your life. As such, you are free to interpret each planet in your chart on its highest and best level, thereby being the highest and best manifestation of God you can be. YOU determine the level of functioning of your chart and the degree of happiness and success in your life. When you function on this level, your life takes on a richness of dimension it has not had before. You take the responsibility for creating your life the way you would like it to be. You see the planets as those gifts and talents you have chosen to express in this lifetime. You fulfill your limitless potential because you see what CAN be, rather than what cannot. The chart then becomes a guide, rather than the source of your happiness or unhappiness. It becomes a reflection of your own spiritual evolution. REVELATION: THE NEW ASTROLOGY is designed to assist you in that evolution. It is about love and appreciation of the God within, the acknowledgment of the Truth of who you are and, as a result, the beautiful expression of that Truth.

When you express the Truth of who you are by being your highest and best, you lift those around you and inspire THEM to be THEIR highest and best. They, in turn, inspire others, and so the Light is awakened in one person after another, spreading love, joy and peace across the face of the earth.

YOUR GIFTS, TALENTS AND ABILITIES PLANETS IN HOUSES

THE SUN

The Sun represents your greatest power and creativity in this lifetime. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you are free to express this power and creativity--that area of life in which your Light shines most brightly.

Sun in 6th house:

No task is too small for you. You are a leader in service projects. You know you can get the job done.

THE MOON

The Moon represents your sensitivity and feeling nature. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you previously sought emotional security and are now more intuitively awakened and responsive.

Moon in 1st house:

You are a naturally feeling person, in tune with your own moods, needs, and emotions. In overcoming the need to protect yourself you inspire others to let down their self-protective walls.

MERCURY

Mercury rules the conscious mind and communication. Wherever it is placed in the chart is the area of life about which you think and talk the most.

Mercury in 6th house:

You think in terms of service. You come up with new ideas on how to get the job done, and encourage ideas among your co-workers.

VENUS

Venus represents the principles of love, beauty, art and sociability. Wherever it is placed in your chart is that area of life where you most easily express love and beauty.

Venus in 6th house:

You are a joy to work with because you love your job. You happily perform your tasks because you love to serve.

MARS

Mars rules passion and energy. Wherever it is placed in your chart is the area of life that comes first to you, the area into which you throw yourself and your energies, the area about which you feel passionately.

Mars in 2nd house:

You throw yourself into making money --- and spending it. You feel deeply about your priorities, values and possessions, and ardently take a stand for what is yours.

JUPITER

Jupiter represents the principles in which you believe, and rules expansion, abundance, truth, generosity and optimism. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you are blessed, and in which you believe most strongly.

Jupiter in 8th house:

You are extremely intuitive and know that you have hidden spiritual protection. Your belief system has undergone a metamorphosis enabling you to shine the light of truth into the darkest corners, and giving you the ability to go directly to the cause of a problem rather than dealing with the effects. You are able to help others increase their assets by encouraging them to accept abundance into their lives.

SATURN

Saturn rules responsibility, authority, strength and power. Wherever it falls in your chart is the area of life where you take charge, assume your responsibilities and express your greatest strength.

Saturn in 9th house:

You build your life on the philosophies and principles in which you believe---and you live by them. Your example helps others get clear on what their own beliefs are. Your concept of God is traditional, and your philosophy is: if you respect God's laws, the universe works with you.

URANUS

Uranus rules originality, innovation, and invention. Wherever it falls in your chart is that area of life in which you express your unique individuality.

Uranus in 6th house:

You are original and inventive at work, and come up with new ways of doing tasks. This encourages your co-workers/employees to be inventive, too. While you must be independent on the job, you want to be part of a team working for the good of the whole.

NEPTUNE

Neptune represents spirituality, faith, and divine inspiration. Its house placement indicates that area of life in which you seek to fulfill your most beautiful dreams, and where you are inspired to selflessly serve.

Neptune in 8th house:

You are deeply inspired to serve others by helping them spiritualize their values (put God first). This helps their finances increase. You can do this without saying a word because you are in tune with the spiritual power of the universe, and intuitively understand manifestation.

PLUTO

Pluto represents total transmutation, the death of the lower nature and subsequent emergence of the reborn God within. Wherever it falls in your chart is that area of life in which you have been transformed, where you are empowered and completely in command.

Pluto in 6th house:

You have a powerful healing ability which can be applied to both yourself and others. You throw yourself into service activities, and can resurrect and transform a discarded project, giving it new life.

THE NORTH AND SOUTH NODES

The South Node, the Dragon's Tail, represents those qualities and abilities previously developed in past lives. The North Node, the Dragon's Head, represents those qualities and abilities to be further developed in this life. Combining both nodes balances their energies and creates a natural flow. Because they are 180 degrees apart, they teach us how to interact successfully with others and, therefore, affect all our relationships. Their house placements indicate those areas of life which can thrive as a result of their blending.

Nodes in 1st/7th houses:

You have the ability to create warm and loving relationships in which both parties get what they want without feeling they are giving anything up.

PLANETS IN SIGNS

By seeing the positive manifestation of the planets in the signs, you are able to express your highest and best.

Sun in Virgo:

Your desire to serve and be useful, plus your efficiency at everything you do, make you a valuable member of any project.

Moon in Pisces:

You are sensitive to subtle nuances, and respond beautifully to music and art. You feel most comfortable when you are giving of yourself.

Mercury in Leo:

You describe everything dramatically, with color and flair. People love to hear you tell a story.

Venus in Leo:

You express your loving feelings dramatically, ardently and creatively. You love to have fun.

Mars in Taurus:

You apply your energies to practical, productive pursuits, and don't quit until they yield results.

Jupiter in Libra:

You are happiest and most successful when involved in partnership.

Saturn in Sagittarius:

You assume your responsibility to live according to your principles and be loyal to the truth.

Uranus in Leo:

Your creations are innovative because you love to try the unique and unusual.

Neptune in Scorpio:

You are able to lose yourself in the power of the universe and become one with God. You are very psychic and receive constant spiritual insights.

Pluto in Virgo:

Your attitude toward work and health have been transformed. You are free to work at what you choose, and are passionate about serving. You have the ability to heal yourself non-traditionally.

THE NODES IN THE SIGNS

The North and South Nodes teach us the same lessons in the signs as they do in the houses.

Nodes in Aries/Libra:

You have the ability to create warm and loving relationships in which both parties get what they want without feeling they are giving anything up.

ASPECTS

Traditional astrology identifies certain aspects between planets as "positive", and others as "negative". Aspects between planets are simply contacts between them. When you are coming from limitlessness, when your chart is functioning on its highest and best level, your attitude is one of loving acceptance because you know that every situation is a reflection of where you are and what your next learning experience is. As a result, every aspect is positive. By accepting planetary aspects as positive learning experiences, they function that way in your life.

Sun - Moon aspects:

You have the ability/opportunity to harmonize and balance the masculine and feminine sides of your nature, the inner and outer you, the individuality and personality. When this occurs, interpersonal relationships flow smoothly, your physical health is good, and life is harmonious.

Sun - Neptune aspects:

You walk hand-in-hand with God and fulfill your dreams through service to Him. You are inspired and see beauty everywhere. You give thanks all the time for God's presence and blessings on earth.

Sun - Pluto aspects:

You have great personal magnetism and charisma. You have the power to transform negative conditions and situations into positive ones. You, yourself, undergo a resurrection in this lifetime.

Sun - Asc. aspects:

You are powerful, confident and create your own reality.

Moon - Saturn aspects:

You are instinctively drawn to positions of authority, and know how to lead. You assume your responsibilities and keep your commitments and promises.

Moon - Asc. aspects:

You are sensitive, compassionate and intuitive. You feel the currents around you and are in tune with your surroundings.

Moon - MC aspects:

You are in tune with the public, and are instinctively drawn to the leader. Others see you as protective and nurturing.

Mercury - Venus aspects:

You are friendly, sociable and charming. You appreciate music, art and beauty, and articulate beautifully.

Mercury - Mars aspects:

Your mind is quick, alert, and you express yourself humorously. You love to keep your mind stimulated and your hands busy.

Mercury - Jupiter aspects:

You are philosophical and see the big picture. Your mind is open to new ideas, and you willingly share them. You see the positive, sunny side of life.

Mercury - Saturn aspects:

You are intelligent, reason well, and think logically and practically. You are disciplined and assume your responsibilities.

Mercury - Pluto aspects:

You are psychic and get to the truth of the situation because you hear what people are NOT saying as well as what they ARE saying. Your words influence people strongly because you speak to the subconscious as well as the conscious mind.

Mercury - MC aspects:

Others see you as a natural communicator. You do well in leadership positions where you can share ideas.

Venus - Mars aspects:

You are fun-loving, sociable, and affectionate. Your sexual/love energies can harmonize, giving you a zest for living.

Venus - Saturn aspects:

You are loyal in love, and faithful in friendship. You are practical and disciplined with money. People trust your strong sense of responsibility, and know that you fulfill your commitments.

Venus - Uranus aspects:

You are magnetic and exciting. You love humanity and attract all kinds of unique relationships and adventures. Love and money can come easily to you through unusual sources.

Venus - MC aspects:

The world sees you as popular and loving.

Mars - Uranus aspects:

You are courageous, pioneering, and look at life as an adventure. You act quickly and come up with new ways of doing things. You are your own person and ahead of your time. Your healing ability and psychic energies are powerful.

Jupiter - Neptune aspects:

You are kind, generous and compassionate. You are inspired to serve God by serving mankind.

Jupiter - Pluto aspects:

Your psychic and healing energies are strong and powerful. You have the ability to bring about transformation. By turning your life over to God, you tap even more deeply into your power.

Saturn - Uranus aspects:

You are a humanitarian and interact beautifully with old and young, traditional and non-traditional, acting as a link between the two.

Saturn - Asc. aspects:

You are responsible, dignified and mature. You are steadfast and keep your promises.

Saturn - MC aspects:

You are a reliable, responsible authority figure. You understand power and use it wisely.

Uranus - MC aspects:

You are innovative in leadership and believe in the good of the whole.

Neptune - Pluto aspects:

You possess a powerful spiritual energy that inspires you to serve mankind. By letting go and letting God, you tap into your highest power.

Neptune - Asc. aspects:

You are gentle, lovely, spiritual and naturally in tune with the God within.

Pluto - Asc. aspects:

You are powerful, magnetic, and can bring about change wherever you go.

THE ASCENDANT

The ascendant is the most personal point in the chart. The sign on the ascendant gives a powerful description of you. By knowing its most positive qualities, you may use your ascendant on its highest and best level.

Ascendant in Pisces:

You are spiritual, mystical and inspired. Your fulfillment comes through losing yourself in service to God.

THE CHART RULER

The ruler of the sign on the ascendant is the "chart ruler." It is a key planet in the horoscope because the ascendant is the most personal point in the chart. Its sign, house placement and the aspects it makes to other planets explain how you express YOU. (Refer to chapters: Planets in Houses, Planets in Signs and Aspects.)

CHART RULERS: NEPTUNE AND/OR JUPITER

You express spirituality, faith, and service. You live your dream and inspire others to pursue theirs. You want to live according to your principles, the greatest of which is Truth.

ROVING DELEGATES

The signs on the house cusps are the principles to be learned; the cusp on which a sign falls tells us the area of life in which that particular principle will manifest. The planetary ruler, or "roving delegate" of that sign, acts as a messenger, bringing the energy from the house it rules to the house in which it is placed. For example, if Aries is on the 3rd cusp and Mars is in the 10th, the ruler of the 3rd is in the 10th. The energy flows from the 3rd to the 10th, linking the two. The same principle applies if Taurus is on the 3rd and Venus is in the 10th, or Cancer is on the 3rd and the Moon is in the 10th.

Ruler of 1st house in 8th:

You are a natural detective because you are interested in cause rather than effect. You are powerful and can bring about behind-the-scenes changes. You can assist others to get clear on their own values and priorities.

Ruler of 2nd house in 2nd:

Your ability to earn money and create possessions is strong. You can manifest wealth.

Ruler of 3rd house in 6th:

You can think yourself back to health. You think about your work and have ideas to contribute about all projects.

Ruler of 4th house in 6th:

Your need to be needed finds a welcome outlet in work and service projects. You feel emotionally fulfilled when busily at work at a task you feel is necessary.

Ruler of 5th house in 1st:

Your personality reflects your creativity, dramatic self-expression and enjoyment of life. Your children (whether of the mind or the body) have a direct influence on you, and encourage you to have fun and express yourself.

Ruler of 6th house in 6th:

You have a strong need to be busily involved in a project at all times. Your greatest joy comes through serving others and, in so doing, feeling useful, wanted and needed. No task is too small, too unimportant to you. As a result, you give 100% all the time.

Ruler of 7th house in 6th:

Your work involves serving the public in general and your partner in particular. You feel fulfilled when doing for others.

Ruler of 8th house in 6th:

You are passionate about serving in your work and can lose yourself in it. You have the ability to heal yourself.

Ruler of 9th house in 6th:

You put your principles into action in your work and you work at what you believe in. Service is one of the principles by which you live.

Ruler of 10th house in 8th:

Your attitude toward authority figures in general and your own authority in particular can undergo a transformation. As a result, your career can undergo a total change. You have the ability to assist others to get clear on their values, priorities and financial responsibilities through your career.

Ruler of 11th house in 9th:

Your philosophy involves being a friend, and your friends support the principles by which you live.

Ruler of 12th house in 6th:

You want to serve in your work. As a result, no task is too small or unimportant because you know it is needed.

A FINAL WORD

When you believe you are intelligent, you act intelligently. When you believe you are loving, you act lovingly and attract love. When you believe you are limitless, you act limitlessly and attract success. Why not accept the truth--that you were born to be happy, to succeed and to live life abundantly? By putting your attention on the most positive manifestation of your chart you create love, joy and peace in your life. It's your life---live it!
