Introduction

This report is based on a positive vision of world peace, and the belief that each individual has the potential within to make a significant contribution to world peace. The basis of inner peace is self-esteem and self-knowledge, and when enough individuals are self-aware, they will act in accordance with natural laws to promote harmony around them, and the result will be world peace.

Good will win out over evil, and the goodness within yourself will manifest through your individual personality. This report is designed to draw your attention to your potential, your unique opportunities for expressing it, and your ability to bring about harmony around you. Some of your ability is based on gifts which you already have, which are easy for you to draw upon. You also have the willpower to dissolve any blockages which may be standing in the way of your clear vision of the possibilities of harmony and peace. Start with a positive attitude, and you will be favorably surprised at what you can achieve and what you can overcome. Love yourself, and you are already creating world peace.

Each person's astrological chart maps out a divinely created plan for that individual. It tells what you were put on this earth to do. You can learn what your own, unique mission is and then you can rejoice in carrying it out. The utmost good which you can imagine can become your reality. Then you can spread the good news to others and awaken them to their own, inner Light. All persons are created from the divine, and we are moving back to the divine. Life is a celebration of both our common awareness of the Light and our God-given birthright to an individual identity which is uniquely ours and which, when fully realized, will shine as its own Light and harmonize with all the other Lights on the planet. It will be like the vivid and beautiful colours of the spectrum all merging into White Light, and then radiating from the souls of all individuals at once.

Astrology is the study of the Astral Plane. The Astral Plane is the link between the everyday world of the manifested, Physical Plane and our higher planes of awareness, from which we can draw insight into how to improve our affairs in the physical realm. If we perceive a problem in the everyday world, such as a lack of peace, we cannot always solve it on that level, because the everyday world is made up of opposing polarities. We need to rise above the physical plane to see that these opposites are reconcilable. For example, if one person is male and another is female, they appear on the surface to be of opposite polarities but on the higher level, they are both human; they can communicate with each other; and they can enjoy working together for their common benefit.

Each individual has opposing polarities too, such as a right side and a left side, but through the higher awareness of our brains we get our two sides working together. Our brain has two hemispheres: The left hemisphere is responsible for logical thought and governs the right side of our body. The right hemisphere is responsible for creative, lateral thinking and rules the left side of our body. When we operate "from centre" - that is, when our higher brain gets our logical thought and our creative thought to work together harmoniously - then we come up with our best, most creatively intelligent output. When we use our full potential, when we know whom we are and believe in ourselves, then we create maximum harmony with those around us and, on the transpersonal level, we come up with our best solutions for world peace.

On the astral level each individual has command of both polarities. For example, we each have a Sun sign and a Moon sign. We also each have a Venus and a Mars sign, regardless of whether we are male or female on the physical plane. So, if we tune into whom we are astrologically, we begin to reach a level of awareness where we have transcended the polarities of the physical plane. We can see how we are each an embodiment of the harmonious balancing of polarities.

We are born with this unity already in place. We just need to know how to use our Sun sign and our Moon sign, and our other planets, to our best advantage in our daily lives, so that by being our true selves, we will be bringing about peace.

Each person's method of using his or her Sun and Moon signs, and other planets, will be different, because we were each born at a different time and place on the Earth, where we're influenced by different combinations of influences by the other planets. On this astral plane, some of us will be contributing a more masculine interpretation of solar energy (if our Sun is in a fire or air sign) and the rest of us will be showing the world a more feminine way of looking at the Sun (if our Sun is in an earth or water sign). Also, depending on our Moon sign, we will each have our own way of interpreting the Moon's type of energy and, in our mission on Earth, we will be contributing this much-needed awareness to our own planet's evolution. We are all important, and we are all here to be ourselves, at our highest possible level of understanding. We are here to help our planet achieve its divine purpose, and to do so is perfectly natural to us.

Just as there are particular points of strength and prominence in your astrological chart, there are strategic points on the Earth's surface for the achievement of world peace. For example, this Report is being written in the city of Toronto which, along with London and Los Angeles, are important world energy centres (or chakras) for the development of international understanding. London is the world centre for intelligence and Los Angeles is the world centre for creativity. Toronto is the centre for unity, or creative intelligence, or the resolution of polarities. The name "Toronto" means "meeting place" in native Indian. Therefore, it is part of the mission of those who are familiar with the earth energy of Toronto to spread to the rest of the world the message that polarities can be resolved and peace can be created.

I once obtained a computer printout as to what was going on in the news on the day of my birth. It said that, on that date in 1950, Ralph Bunche received the Nobel Peace Prize. I later learned that he was one of the founders of the United Nations and that he had been successful in negotiating a truce between the Jews and the Palestinians in Israel in 1949. He did this by working very hard to listen to the points of view of both sides and looking for a common ground. He said "Talking is better than shooting". He remained calm himself and successfully brought about an armistice. Treaties were signed between Israel and each of Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria. So, the very positive message which can be brought into the present day is: Peace is possible. Differences can be overcome and understanding can be reached through conscious effort and communication. Look for what you have in common with your neighbour and build on it.

My message as an astrologer to you is: Whatever day you were born on is divinely significant. Your birth data can be the key to your realizing how important your presence in the world is. Each person is uniquely important. Within each other person we can see our own, divine essence mirrored, because what we have in common is our potential to bring out the very best in ourselves and each other.

On the day that I decided to write the World Peace Report and I began writing it, October 17, 2002, there were many trine aspects, which confers harmony. I hope that your World Peace Report helps you to fully develop your potential for contributing to world peace and harmony.

Chapter 1: Rising Sign

Ascendant in Pisces:

Your outward personality, through which your Inner Light and all of the various planetary influences in your chart are expressed, is compassionate, creative and psychically receptive. Others would be drawn to you because of your kindness, which you readily extend to those most in need. They would learn from your example to value their emotions more and to care about others. In doing this, they would discover more about their own, inner nature and realize that we are all here as part of a greater purpose and that we are meant to be kind to one another.

Chapter 2: The Sun

Sun in Virgo:

Your rational mind is a real asset in creating world peace. While others become tangled up in negative fears about the possibilities for the world, you are able to determine factually whether there is any logical basis for their fears. By encouraging others to look at events objectively, you are preventing the kinds of misunderstandings which unnecessarily arise from unfounded paranoia and counter-paranoia. The fact is that everyone has a great deal in common, and if this reality is remembered then peace and understanding are what will be spread. You value the good health of mind, body and spirit and you are aware that good health is the basis of everything else, including the capacity to create world peace.

Sun in the 6th house:

You have a talent for showing people how to find joy in their work. Joyful work involves first coming up with a creative idea and then filling in the details to make it a reality. For example, if the creative idea were to create peace in the world, you would work out a plan and then enjoy the long hours of doing what it would require and then marvelling at the results. You are likely to have dynamic health, and you could heal others very effectively, by first getting them to see that their own, inner willpower can work in their favour and then encouraging them to keep to a set plan of diet, exercise, meditation, and relaxation.

Sun Sextile Neptune:

You have a very inspired, creative imagination and you could reach others with a peaceful, compassionate message through music, art or some other subtle form of expression. You are very caring and you would be generous to the poor. You could help to inspire them to lift themselves up and perform acts of kindness to one another, so that they would all believe in themselves and be healed from any doubts as to their own worth. You could bring about a more peaceful society by convincing governments to be more compassionate to those in need.

Sun Conjunct Pluto:

You have command of two very powerful energies here - the Sun, which is the creative force in the solar system, and Pluto, which is the outer extreme of the solar system. You can tap the creative force and bring it out into your conscious awareness as a healing, life force. You can also come to understand the ultimate purpose of it all and know where to direct the life force in accordance with the greater plan. By combining these two very intense influences, you can bring more vitality into the world situation and regenerate the positive, spiritual awareness which will guide the individuals on earth towards enlightenment and peace.

Chapter 3: The Moon

Moon in Pisces:

You are very sensitive to the vibrations around you, so seek out a peaceful place where you can live near the water and where your creativity can flow. In the right environment, you will receive much divine inspiration about how to improve the world, and your prayers and meditations will result in your being able to uplift the planet in very subtle, gentle, positive ways. Provided that your own psyche is free of stress you have the potential to be a psychic healer or channeller, and to be able to send healing energy to wherever it is most needed.

Moon in the 1st house:

As your self-expression is strongly influenced by our subconscious mind, the more you do subconscious clearing exercises, the more your self-expression will be peaceful. In particular, become aware of how your early childhood experiences have influenced your self-image and seek to clear any blockages or negative core beliefs, so that you can be your true, happy, positive self. The better your self-image, the more your everyday, emotional reactions to what goes on around you will be harmonious and constructive, and you will have a new self-confidence in your experiences with others.

Moon Square Saturn:

Although you may have faced harsh circumstances concerning your mother when you were young, your life experiences have taught you to be very rational and self-reliant. While others may fall to pieces in a crisis, you are able to remain emotionally detached and carry on with the essential things which need to be done. You would be able to show others how to have realistic expectations and how not to be greedy for too much and, in that way, to maintain a peaceful society.

Chapter 4: Mercury

Mercury in Leo:

You are cheerful, positive, dynamic, and able to see the big picture. Always remember that your ego, although important, is ruled by your inner spirits and must be used in ways to help others see their own worth too. You would have a talent for speaking out about peace, as an articulate leader, and you could be very effective if you were to speak out about how each person is very important in creating world peace, and that this is best done by having each person's light shine.

Mercury in the 6th house:

You would have much to contribute to world peace, particularly in the health field. You are likely to study hard and acquire a very detailed knowledge of a specialized area such as holistic health care, accounting or astrology. You would then have credibility in telling others that, even if it will take a lot of work to achieve world peace, it is well worth the effort, and that the possibilities for world peace are very practical.

Mercury Square Mars:

You need a peaceful outlet for your forceful verbal ability, such as standing up for those who are unable to express themselves or who have been wronged in some way. You are physically agile and you would find that you are less likely to be argumentative if you get enough exercise, especially at a competitive sport. You will get along harmoniously with others if you take the time to understand their point of view.

Mercury Sextile Jupiter:

You are an excellent speaker and writer on the philosophical basis for a peaceful world. You would work for the intellectual and spiritual advancement of humanity. Because you like to travel, you could meet with the philosophers and scholars in other countries and share ideas with them. You would do well as a lecturer, publisher, or religious speaker. You endeavour to elevate others to the highest education and values of which they are capable.

Mercury Conjunct Pluto:

You understand the importance of the choices of words used in the mass media for world peace. Positive words have a positive impact on people's thoughts and actions. You would make a good investigative reporter, finding out the real story and sharing the real facts with the readers. That is because you start with a positive expectation of the readers: You believe in their right to know the truth and you have faith in them to use the facts for the purposes of good.

Chapter 5: Venus

Venus in Leo:

You were a loved child, and you can readily see that the people who have trouble visualizing peace need to foster a kinder, happier outlook. You can be a real inspiration for them, because your optimistic leadership is very assuring to them. You would be good at working with children and providing them with a secure, stable start in life, so that they would then be able to create peace in their own lives.

Venus in the 6th house:

You understand the value of peaceful surroundings for health, and you are likely to create a work environment which is beautiful and neat. You take the time to ensure that your relationships with your co-workers are harmonious, and more happiness and better productivity are the results. You are very solid and reliable and mature about doing the hard work needed to create lasting peace.

Venus Square Mars:

Venus rules peace and Mars rules war. It is a challenge for you to deal with these two, apparently conflicting energies, but you have been gaining experience at this all your life. You now have insights about it which could help the world to get conflicts resolved peacefully. For example, Mars has very positive outlets when its energy is spiritually guided. Mars can be the driving force which gets peace actually carried out, rather than just talked about. Mars can sell the idea of peace. Mars provides the self-assurance which peacemakers need in their work. Mars can overpower those who are preventing peace, so as to protect the innocent, and Venus can make sure that Mars does not go too far in this.

Venus Trine Saturn:

This is a very fortunate position for achieving a long-term peace agreement. You would have the diplomacy, goodwill and perseverance to work through any differences and bring out a voluntary willingness to come together. You would be very honest in your relationships, and you would expect honesty in return. You would look ahead to the future in order to prepare for any unexpected contingencies, and you would include an agreement about what to do about them in the present plan.

Venus Conjunct Uranus:

You have an innate understanding of the concept of universal peace. You see everyone as being equal, and you are committed to justice for all. You are friendly and sociable, and you would have harmonious relationships with persons from all walks of life. You would be good at working on peaceful causes and your approach to doing this would be on the higher, mental plane.

Chapter 6: Mars

Mars in Taurus:

As long as you keep your own, inner "centre" in mind, you would have great talent for getting others to give up a "might makes-right" attitude. You would be able to instil in them an awareness that real security comes from within, not from people fighting over money or power, because all that does is get them weakening each other, rather than working together to bring out each other's potential. At your best, you would be very committed to building lasting peace, and your great patience and determination would lead you to great achievements. Strive to reach your highest, full potential.

Mars in the 2nd house:

You have the ability to take direct action to ensure peace and, in this way, you can motivate those who may be too fearful or indecisive to achieve something concrete. You have good earning ability and could begin a new business venture in a place where the cause of any dissension is the lack of a good economy.

Chapter 7: Jupiter and Saturn

Jupiter in Libra:

What a wonderful position for a natural peacemaker! Jupiter spreads goodwill and optimism and Libra promotes justice, fairness and peace. Become well-educated and experienced in the areas of mediation, law, marriage counselling, or international relations in order to achieve your full potential. You are generous, sociable, kind, and able to inspire the cooperation of others. You would be able to teach others by your example the highest ideals of peace-making.

Jupiter in the 8th house:

You believe in honesty and openness in financial dealings, especially where these matters affect spiritual advancement on the global level. You have great optimism about the regeneration of the planet, and you are able to tackle and remove any blockages to peace with the utmost faith and courage. You are able to see the broader picture of human evolution and to view death as a step towards eternal life, and that is why you are able to help others move beyond grief to a happier future.

Jupiter Conjunct Neptune:

You would be very optimistic about the power of higher compassion to heal the world. You have ready access to spiritual wisdom and psychic abilities, and you could do a great deal to heal both individuals and the planet as a whole. You might become a yoga teacher, a faith healer, or an inspired artist. You would be able to assist others at spiritual retreats to have better communication with the Higher Power. You could lead world peace meditations. You could set a positive example for others of great generosity, selflessness and compassion.

Jupiter Sextile Pluto:

Jupiter rules faith and goodwill. Pluto rules regeneration and transformation. The sextile aspect is ruled by Venus, which rules peace. You have a very positive potential here for uplifting others spiritually and regenerating peace on the planet. You have a strong sense of the ultimate, peaceful purpose of Creation, and you are able to bring awareness of this into the lives of many. You might do this through published works, travels to other countries, faith healing, lecturing, or leading a spiritual movement.

Saturn in Sagittarius:

You have a good balance between inner inspiration and practical achievement, because you are very honest and live according to your beliefs. Use your philosophy or religion as a positive guide to make you happier, and rise above having it be just a set of restricting rules. In this way, you will be living the true meaning of it, and you will be tolerant of others and their beliefs.

Saturn in the 9th house:

You see religions and philosophies in terms of their practical value for creating a better society. You would be good at helping prevent any disagreements over ideologies, because you would see that would work against the social order. You are unusually honest and demand honesty from others, because you know that truth is the only valid approach to better understanding.

Chapter 8: Uranus, Neptune and Pluto

Uranus in Leo:

You would make a good leader because you would have both the self-confidence to lead and the awareness that everyone is equally important. You would, therefore, attract followers for democratic ideas. You would be an enthusiastic participant in the cause of having an enlightened, peaceful and happier world.

Uranus in the 6th house:

Because you are likely to use a computer or telephone in your work, you would have the opportunity to reach others of various backgrounds and exchange new ideas with them. You would have talent as an alternative healer, using techniques learned from other cultures to promote natural healing. You like to explore new ideas and insights and then put them to practical use for the good of everyone. By doing this, you are promoting international understanding because, for example, if a healing technique works for someone, he or she will appreciate the culture from which the idea came.

Neptune in Scorpio:

You were born into a generation of people who were concerned about contacting their deeper emotions and accepting even the most challenging aspects of themselves. This, in its own way, was a process of developing greater tolerance and love for people of all types. There was increased awareness that compassion, rather than attempted suppression, was the way to reach even the worst offenders, whose intense energies could be turned around from doing great bad to doing great good.

Neptune in the 8th house:

You would be intensely compassionate and able to reach people whom others have given up on as enemies. Your psychic and spiritual awareness would extend far beyond everyday circumstances to the higher realms, and you would be very concerned with the overall question of how the world can be made more compassionate. You might be able to do psychic healing of people's auras to regenerate their connection with the higher power.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

You were born into an age when there was a subtle awareness that world peace could be created if individuals chose in large enough numbers to treat one another with compassion and kindness. There were many spiritual visions of peace, which appeared in music, art and mass communication. The knowledge of how to bring about peace was there, but it needed to be brought down into the physical plane of actual action, for there to be enough love and spiritual regeneration in everyday life. The willpower was needed to overcome addictions and material attachments, in order to make the wisest use of the readily available, profound, channelled, higher insights.

Pluto in Virgo:

You were born at a time when holistic health care became popular, and individuals took control of their own physical, emotional and spiritual health. Transformational health techniques from around the world were explored and practised. This trend set the stage for individuals realizing that, if they could heal themselves, they could also heal the planet. There were also great advances in world health care, such as individuals helping others in different countries to enjoy better health and to have more say in the health matters which affected them.

Pluto in the 6th house:

You would be very interested in holistic health care and the transformations which are possible for persons willing to apply determination and consistent, caring energy on themselves and others. Once you have reached a high level of physical, emotional and spiritual health yourself, you could heal others and help transform the planet as a whole. You might become involved in a world health organization or a movement to clean up the environment. You might work on preventing wars because of their effect on the lives and health of individuals.

Conclusion

This report on World Peace is best utilized by those who are ready to go ahead and make a positive contribution to the world. If you find that you need to feel more secure as an individual first, before taking on the task of helping to change the world, then you may find that the Personal Security Report is more suited to your needs. The Personal Security Report addresses the issue of preventing negative outcomes. The World Peace Report takes the next step and focuses on how to manifest positive outcomes. The Personal Security Report is about undoing past karma, and the World Peace Report is about creating good karma for the future.

The outlook for world peace in the 21st century is very positive. If Ralph Bunche were able to bring about a truce in 1949, think of what many individuals working together could achieve now! He was working under pressure, but there are many persons now who are able to reflect on peaceful solutions without being under pressure. There are new technologies such as computers which can be used to bring people together. The concept of a unified world is more acceptable nowadays in people's minds and, therefore, easier to achieve. Yes, the tensions in the world may appear to be more obvious now, but that reflects the healthy process of the world's past karma unravelling, in order to pave the way for a positive, enlightened future. The World Peace Report is designed to help you discover the ways in which you can participate and contribute to world peace in this century where there is so much potential for all of us to assist in this very important endeavor.
