HOW TO USE THIS REPORT

In the pages which follow, you will see descriptions of your character traits, relationship potentials and challenges, as well as career potentials, and even more.

All or most of these sometimes intimate descriptions will be linked in some way with your past lives and your experiences in the planetary realms between lifetimes (the interlife).

Yet, you may ask, how can this information best be used?

First, HELP YOURSELF. The enclosed uplifting commentary can only be truly beneficial if you see it as a means of self-help and self-transformation. So to get the maximum practical benefit out of each page of this report, focus on connecting what you read with what is going on in your life now.

Next, LOOK FOR PATTERNS. When you see repeated references for instance to similar careers, pursuits or vocations you should consider these references seriously. They demonstrate a positive karmic connection which you now have with these same career-related potentials from past life endeavors. So, because of prior life success, these areas of expression should be easier for you to find rewarding or to succeed in, as compared with in other areas.

Also, pay close attention to REMEDIAL MEASURES. For instance, you may be given an affirmation to use in meditation (or a prayer). Or you may be given a crystal/gemstone to wear. These means of balancing out challenging vibrations can indeed be very helpful, especially if used in a hopeful manner.

Finally, this report is a synthesis of past life and planetary interlife interpretations originally given clairvoyantly by Edgar Cayce, for individuals with your same planetary patterns at birth. So in applying this report to your personal life, you should RESPECT INNER GUIDANCE through dreams, meditation and past life regression for example as primary resources for this kind of information; and most important, RESPECT YOUR FREE WILL! You alone must choose and know what is really best for you.

Your birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth.

Astrologer Ry Redd calculated on computer the astrology charts for hundreds of people who received readings by Edgar Cayce which contained astrologically based information. By studying these astrology charts, Ry Redd determined what planetary influences were most likely responsible for the readings by Edgar Cayce. In many cases the astrological basis of the Cayce readings appears to be very straightforward. From this information Ry Redd was able to develop, in conjunction with the computer programmers at Cosmic Patterns Software, an analysis of your birth chart as Ry Redd believes that Edgar Cayce's psychic readings would have interpreted it. Ry Redd's research effort was exhaustive and was conducted over many years, some of which was spent at the Edgar Cayce library at the Association for Research and Enlightenment headquarters in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

For the benefit of students of astrology, these positions, along with other technical information, are listed below:

Sun position is 6 deg. 09 min. of Virgo

Your Past Life Report begins on the following page . . .

Your Sun harmoniously aspects Neptune.

Your mystical, intuitive and spiritual sensitivity arises from your past lives, perhaps in early Roman times, or in the Egyptian/late Atlantean period. Then you may have been a seer with expertise in the religious mysteries of the day and in healing through the laying of hands. Your likely interest in group meditation, symbology, holistic health, and astrological timing arises from such past life experiences.

From your afterlife experience in the Neptune dimension, your imaginative urges create strong mystical impressions within you. At times, when you meditate or simply rest, the actions expressed in your visions and daydreams may elicit such intense emotions that you may feel as if you had actually experienced them.

Since Neptune is a higher octave of Venus, ruler of the arts, your Neptunian attunement and sensitivity give you abilities related to the arts in virtually any direction, whether as an actor, a dancer, an artist, musician or art critic.

Although you would do well in any creative endeavor, you are also gifted with healing power, especially in applying, for example, music and color to emotional disturbances. Hence, combining analytical or depth psychology with your creative and mystical sensitivities may suggest fields that will bring you deep understanding, if judged from the spiritual side.

You may also achieve a great deal through service for others, caring for others, helping those less fortunate. To be a channel of blessings to others is the purpose of every soul coming into the material world. For you particularly, serving others may have special rewards. If it is in keeping with your ideals, you would gain much in service involving an organized charitable institution or missionary branch of a church denomination. Public leadership involving large organizations through speaking to groups and writing is also indicated.

In addition, things that come over water or upon water are likely to be significant in your experience. Travel and law, especially in connection with these, should also be a portion of your activities. [997-1, 2835-1, 2483-2, 2855-1, 1442-1, 2326-1, 315-4]

Your Moon is in an inharmonious pattern with Saturn.

The Moon reflects your subconscious urges and emotions from past lives. Your soul journey in the Saturn dimension between lives probably involved a very profound change which involved a basic reprogramming of your emotional drives. One result of this experience is that you may be challenging yourself this lifetime with opportunities to meet and successfully grow through troublesome conditions between groups, as well as political and foreign affairs. However, when you meet these situations in your quiet manner, you will probably turn them to your advantage, especially as regards your financial affairs.

It may also be said that as a mediator you are able to build upon the failures of others where there is the expression of doubt or fear on their part. In other words, where others have failed in communicating or making the right connection with each other, owing to some cross or error over which there has been dissension or discussion, you can take this challenge and build upon it. This may often bring into your experience very satisfying conditions. Yet you may constantly be changing in your relationship to groups, sometimes becoming very close, and at other times much further apart.

Do try to refrain from making or drawing comparisons between you and others, thereby belittling yourself. Your inclination to do this will not become a stumbling stone if you hold to the ideal that he who would be the greatest among his associates will be the servant of all, a helpful force in his experience in every way. Moreover, it is better to be "had" by all than ever taking advantage of any.

Therefore, in your prayer and meditation periods, seek help from the Creative Forces for guidance as to how you may better express your feelings. You might pray for forgiveness to come to those who have inhibited you in the past. By so doing, you may free yourself to be more affectionate, expressive and less inhibited in your own feelings in the present. You will then love more freely, feel more joy in living and be more free to give to others! [165-2, 329-1, 994-1, 1792-2]

Your Mercury harmoniously aspects Jupiter.

This fortunate birth pattern gives you abilities in fields of expression, especially writing, where many may be affected by what you do, yet without a great deal of effort on your part. You have unique mental abilities which are virtually uncanny: after starting a project and leaving it aside for a while, from unseen sources, almost, it works itself out. The resourcefulness of this pattern lies especially in its merging of the best of your afterlife experiences in the spheres of Mercury and Jupiter. This lends to you interest-free, or with relatively little effort marked abilities in writing. You also have the natural talent to make new associations and friendships that are both unusual and widely varying in social position.

While you may occasionally belittle your abilities you nonetheless have considerable capacities for creative expression in music. You have good judgment and policies toward both individuals and groups as well as a commendable quality of being able to control your temper.

Past life experiences are likely in teaching, writing and even establishing schools of the arts and religion. These educational institutions could range from early America to ancient Greece, Persia and Egypt.

As a result of these experiences in the earth and in the planetary heavens between lives, you have outstanding intellectual qualities which attract to you individuals with quite exceptional abilities. Some of these souls are likely to be brilliant or even geniuses. Other people will be not only gifted but from all walks of life. Your broad resources include attracting the materially rich and the poor, banker and beggar, politician and tramp, prominent church people as well as atheists and agnostics. This all combines to make life for you both worthwhile and interesting.

Jupiter exerts a confidence-building role in your life from your experience in that realm of the faithful. While at times there may be disappointments, fears and troubles of various kinds, your faith and confidence brings hope not only to others but to yourself as well in the sustaining grace of your high ideals. A past life origin of this faith and grace was likely to have been experienced during the time of Jesus. [2903-1, 3657-1, 1638-1, 2172-1, 1096-1, 1315-2, 403-1]

Your Mercury harmoniously aspects Saturn.

Considerable mental resources are indicated from your repeated past life endeavors involving communication and education. As to your abilities, then, as seen from the pattern of your past lives, you could be an instructor through the means or channels of a speaker or writer, or one who in some way supports and encourages those who are seeking to know their closer walk with the Creative Forces, or God.

Over several lifetimes you have reached a mature level intellectually. That is, you are in a position to make creative, renewing additions to old principles constructively and in definite, positive directions. You have the ability to give a good deal of impetus to building on what has been the failure of another, whether physically, financially or mentally. Intellectually very competent and efficient, you also have great self-control and reserve.

However, you are likely to be most reserved in the area of making contacts with groups. You may continually plan out things in your mind, using a great deal of mental energy and ability, as to what would be best, but slow in carrying these plans to fruition until contacts or associations have been made through some definite channel from some outside source.

In other words, although you have above average capacity to organize and plan things out, mentally you may at times be a bit too cautious in following through on your decisions until some specific confirmation or proof offers itself. This comes from your ability to reason from any viewpoint, yet for something to be valuable to you, it must be rational and reasonable as well as practical.

You are therefore one with high mental ability who uses discretion in many ways; these are influences from the free application of your will together with your previous lives and of your afterlife soul journey in the Mercurian realm of awareness. You also have the capacity for what others would describe as "sharp trading." While you are subtle in different ways, you are also one who speaks what is on your mind at once.

In real estate sales and investments you will probably find much self-satisfaction, as well as financial rewards. However, it does not matter much in what you sell or invest, along as the commodity or investment is one in which you have faith. [3129-1, 274-1, 1001-7, 3929-1]

Your Mercury is in an inharmonious pattern with Mars.

This pattern provides you with frequent opportunities to gain or to lose in this experience, according to the activity of your will. Take heed to meet the necessary challenge!

To the good, you have a marked mental aptitude rather than high mental abilities as such making you a very close observer of detail. Often the details so observed are of things or experiences that are of little value to others. This can be a positive quality if properly channeled.

To the detriment, you may be high-tempered at times, knowing what you want and why you want it without asking questions. Too much independence in your action and thought can be dangerous, leading to a prevailing mental attitude that "I know a better way to do it." Your actions will probably be in that direction quite often.

You also have the potential to control and direct many people. The anger displayed through your temper often originates from a supersensitivity to your need for power or direct control over others, especially in personal relationships where at times you lack affection. The combination of sentiment and anger results in conflicting emotions. Remember that one who is never angry is worth little, but one who is angry but does not control it is worth even less!

Your tendencies toward possessiveness and self-centeredness need to be redirected. One way to rechannel these energies is through your potential for writing, as well as in several scientific or mechanical endeavors; you are able to work with mechanical things better than most. Your ability to observe details to an unusual extent can be a valuable asset in writing, with your apparent interest in and appreciation of art, you might write in that area, whether based on psychological fact or historical fiction. If you are hesitant about your ability to write, know that the way to write is to WRITE! It can be a channel for bringing blessings to others as well as giving you greater comprehension of the purpose of mankind.

You are likely to respond favorably to the coral red gemstone. Wearing red coral next to your skin may have beneficial vibratory effects in calming your Martian energies and temperament. [369-3]

Your Venus is conjoined with Uranus.

From your afterlife soul travels in the spiritual realms of Venus and Uranus, you are a true "sensitive" who is able to call upon your inner being to be highly creative in art, music, the new electronic media and writing. With your many very unusual talents, most of which were originally developed by you during a productive lifetime in ancient Atlantis, much will be required of you as far as making the choices which are best for your soul growth. These choices virtually all involving past life associations in social relationships and dealings with the opposite sex are frequently delicate ones, which you usually make with a certain finesse.

You therefore make friendships very easily and are able to tap mysteriously, without knowing how a great deal of creative power from these associations. With aid from angels and spirit guides, you have the resources to pass on this help to others in unique, inspired ways. You are particularly suited to service in the healing arts and in stimulating spiritual attunement/higher consciousness experiences in others.

However, being as self-willed, independent and unconventional as you are sensual in your affections and romantic life, you are likely to experience extremes in love. Being very temperamental and having a strong personal magnetism, you probably frequently experience emotional highs and lows. You should not kick against these circumstances which have apparently blocked and frustrated you in your efforts, especially career-related endeavors. So don't try to mix your career with your romantic life, as you are likely to go through sudden, abrupt upsets in your relationships which could have destructive effects in your chosen work or service to others.

A prayer or affirmation aid for working with these challenges from your past lives and interlife experiences in the Venus and Uranus dimensions could be worded something like this: "Teach me, Lord, that my particular method of self-expression is not all-important. If I act as though only my opinions count, I pray that You will turn my attention away from self. Allow me to see that insistence upon my own form of expression is wrong when it impinges upon the expressions of others. Whenever I am tempted to draw attention to myself, Lord, please remind me not to flaunt the good qualities which I possess." [665-1, 710-3]

Your Venus harmoniously aspects Saturn.

The greater gains for you this lifetime, both financially and spiritually, will be from the middle age on, with the earlier part of your life seeming to be much more difficult. That is, you are likely to experience and share with others a great joy in life during your latter years: in fact, your soul development may well advance you in the afterlife to the higher spheres of Jupiter and the Sun (or beyond this system, to the central stars Arcturus or Polaris).

On the more personal level, one of your main worries in the first half of your life will probably concern your love life. You are likely to be the one who is hurt rather than the one doing the hurting: that is, contentions arise more often in the other camp than in your own. Most of your saddest experiences this lifetime have come through the breaking up of friendships, family and marital and relationships. At the same time, many of your happiest, most pleasant and most peaceful experiences have come through these same relationships.

You have a definite spiritual beauty which develops out of your successfully overcoming these adverse personal challenges. In other words, you are one who has found and overcome many vicissitudes and changes in your present lifetime. Yet you eventually attract true and tried partnerships. In your later years, in fact, may well come the great love of your life, a companionship that will bring a contentment that will be very satisfying. Your financial affairs are also likely to get better as you mature further.

To insure such positive outcomes as these, one tendency should be addressed. This is your inclination to see difficulties in your relationships with others as being no fault of your own and that action on the part of the other person is necessary in order for the relationship to flow smoothly. At times you may too easily carry this to extremes. Remember that to be forgiven, you must forgive; to have friends you must be friendly; to be loved you must love. And if you wish to make for peace, joy, happiness, understanding, you must understand, must emanate peace and reflect joy.

Whether reworded for your more personal needs, or rephrased as an affirmation to repeat in meditation, you may wish to use all or just selected portions of the following prayer. "Thank You, Lord, for the profoundly meaningful, yet often difficult experiences in my life. From these I have emerged the victor, for You have blessed me with the inner strength and determination to master each and every obstacle I have encountered. I am grateful, too, for the older people in my life that have pointed the way when I was young, and sincerely cared about my welfare. As I get older myself, Lord, may I not begrudge the passing of time. Let me know that the companionships I share with others will grow richer, deeper, and more rewarding as the years go by." [4255-2, 1123-1, 1918-1]

Your Venus is in an inharmonious pattern with Mars.

While constructively emphasizing your virtues and minimizing any shortcomings, there is yet the need to point out your personal challenges from a likely Mars experience between earth lives. Perhaps after having experienced the love, beauty and sentiment of Venus, you chose to return to a new incarnation by way of the Mars dimension. There you probably undid a lot of what you learned during your otherwise fortunate soul sojourn in the domain of the love planet.

For instance, in Mars there is the inclination to be self-centered. Not in a hugely selfish way, but instead through a powerful determination to have your own way, even if shown that other means might be better.

This challenge is mostly indicated in your relationships with the opposite sex, especially your spouse. In such circumstances, your passion and power drive conflicts with your love nature.

At these times you may be impelled by a one-track mind, being incapable then of giving consideration to your partner's point of view. Yet from your experience in Venus, you are able to express your more sentimental feelings and affections upon occasion, but more as an emotional release valve than a means of giving and sharing love.

While the means by which you go about your associations with others have often brought you a pleasing love life or marital relations on one hand or success in business activities on the other, frequently they have brought consternation as well. If only to gratify bodily desires or to satisfy material positions in power or place in the world, they must eventually rust and eat away at the body-mind until there is even destruction to the soul.

Bear in mind that all urges from astrological or planetary experiences and influences are merely inclinations and tendencies: you do NOT necessarily have to react to them at all if you so choose. Instead, study, even saturate your consciousness with the promises of love and forgiveness in the Scriptures. Then, applying your will toward ideals derived from the Source in all phases of your relationships you will be more happy, harmonious and truly successful.

You might try the following prayer as an inner tool for working with these challenges. Put in your own words, it goes something like, "Lord, when my initial enthusiasm begins to wane and I find myself wondering why I chose a certain course of action or relationship with another, please give me patience and remind me that it takes an extra effort of will to maintain an interest, as it takes unconditional love in order to sustain a relationship. If difficulties arise, show me what You require, when I should proceed, when I should withdraw, when to take decisive action and when to surrender to another's wishes. In all situations, Lord, may I be helped to eliminate selfish interest which alienate those I really love." [2062-1, 1201-2, 531-1]

Your Jupiter is conjoined with Neptune.

A past lifetime in Palestine, perhaps during the time of Jesus or the Early Church, and before that, in very early Egypt as a participant in the temple service, are likely to be major influences upon your inner urges in the present. From these prior lives, you are inclined to have an overpowering humanitarian drive, with particularly strong compassionate urges to stamp out injustice and right wrongs, even to the point of self-sacrifice. Work in social service, the ministry or a spiritual cause would therefore be well chosen for you, whether in a career capacity or as an occasional volunteer.

Also, from your afterlife visitation in the watery, spiritual realm of Neptune, you will much more easily find harmony in what you do in life if your activities are involved with people and things which come over, pass through or live and grow in water. You may also find and share with others potentially great benefits through your unique and special gift of healing through the laying on of hands.

However, on the more challenging side, because Jupiter has a special influence upon the liver, its proximity to Neptune at the time you selected to begin a new lifetime can bring you difficulties with your liver. This possible health problem is most likely to be brought on through a dietary and nutritional imbalance, so be especially cautious in your diet, avoid drugs and keep your alcohol intake to a minimum.

Now, as a soul journeying between lifetimes from the watery mystical dimension of Neptune to begin a new earth life, you made an extended stopover en route in the universal consciousness dimension of Jupiter. More specifically, from your Neptune experience in the afterlife comes urges pertaining to the mysterious, to spirituality and all things of a mystical nature. This inclines you to have an especially mystical imagination and creative, musical or artistic abilities.

However, some of your intuitions, speculations, dreams or visions may not always be wise and therefore need to be carefully weighed and even resisted at times, because your imagination is likely to occasionally confuse fact with fantasy. A related tendency to guard yourself against is the likelihood that your emotional urges and expansive feelings will on occasion cloud your otherwise good judgment. This may at times invite illogical or somewhat confused emotional evaluations and decision making.

Uncontrolled, or rather, unguided by a high personal ideal, your earthly emotional experiences from past lifetimes whether worry, fear, depression or even ecstatic, exalted feelings may become stumbling stones for you in the present. When controlled and guided by the highest ideal you can muster, they will be wonderful stepping stones enabling you to better interpret the meaning of emotional experiences in the relationship challenges of others. Then, why worry when you can pray? To ready yourself during times of trial or temptation, let your prayer simply be, "Not my will but thine, O Lord, be done in and through me."

Finally, apply your will in relation to an ideal based on things which are continuous, like Life itself. Of course, only Spirit is truly continuous, while earthly, material things by their very nature must pass away. Hence only an ideal or higher purpose which is reasonably founded on the creative and constructive, or which is prompted by truth as founded in spiritual sources truly lasts. [1188-1]

Your Saturn harmoniously aspects Uranus.

From your experiences in Uranus and Saturn and a likely lifetime long ago in ancient Atlantis, in the present you are able to integrate practicality, patience and common sense with intuition, initiative and originality. You are therefore uniquely capable of pioneering leadership roles, for instance in introducing Aquarian or "New Age" ideas into the more conservative mainstream.

The essential requirement is that you depend more and more on yourself and your own abilities. This self-assurance should apply not only to material or financial matters but also should embrace your abilities to think things through on your own and to apply spiritual principles in your relationships with others.

Whatever extreme changes that come to you are likely to be through the actions of others rather than any shortcomings of your own. Some changes will probably result from your efforts to enlighten others through scientific, social, religious, humanitarian and political means, while having respect for their traditions and rights.

Most of the changes in your experience will come periodically as opportunities for original accomplishments in new fields. Management and administrative responsibilities in electronic communications media as well as parapsychology and esoteric sciences are also areas where you may accomplish much.

After applying with characteristic determination your pioneering energy, often the status quo will be changed for the better. When this happens you may often find yourself free to change directions once more. Most of the time these changes will be opportunities for you to help others understand new approaches and theories which they would otherwise not accept without your initiative. [1934-1, 2630-1]

NOTE: The Zodiac signs of the Sun and Moon are analyzed below. First they will be analyzed in the Tropical zodiac. If the positions are different in the Sidereal zodiac, then they will also be analyzed in the Sidereal zodiac. Also, if the Sun and Moon are in the same zodiac sign, then only the Sun position is interpreted; the Moon position, being the same as the Sun position, does not need to be interpreted in this case.

Your Sun is in Virgo (Tropical zodiac).

As to the activities which are innate or outwardly manifested in your life, coming in the astronomical constellation of Virgo, at times you may have the appearance of being too self-sufficient in your relationships with others. Hence you may be considered somewhat eccentric, especially in your choice of associates and friendships.

There is also a likely tendency for you to approach life in a very rational way, resulting in your being considered by others as having a rather materialistic turn of mind. At the same time this also gives you the ability to train or direct the training of the minds of young people.

Long ago, one of your likely past lives was in an ideal nature setting, where you were known for your courage and for your ability to heal. From this distant lifetime you are less likely than most people to be dominated by others and you are usually inclined to carry your share of responsibilities. This experience may have been in South or Central America as a member of one of the native cultures in the Amazon forest of Brazil or the Aztec Indians of Mexico.

Mercury is the planet which rules or symbolizes the essence of the sign Virgo. Higher levels of learning and teaching, then, have been yours in these lifetimes, from successful interaction with nature to more religious pursuits like participating in the Holy Crusades to Palestine and neighboring lands. You may also have followed Alexander the Great on his history-making and Greek culture-expanding military excursions into Arabia and India. [365-3]

Your Moon is in Pisces (Tropical zodiac).

Coming under the influences of Pisces, water and religion or spiritual matters are likely to have an untold influence on you. Of course, this depends upon the way you respond to these kinds of experiences, for they have probably played an important part or at least have been innate in your experience through many lifetimes in the earth.

Pisces means or symbolizes what is naturally, or by its very nature, representative of influences of the higher soul or higher spiritual level. Hence those things of the spiritual nature should preferably be the way in which your judgments are drawn, as to whether this or that activity should be your impelling influence. Not that you should become lost in motives or in influences impelling your actions: just use those things of the spiritual import as the measuring rod of your activities and experiences.

In light of this, the period around the birth and ministry of Jesus, the Christ, is the clearest past life for you to recall and build upon in the present. You may even remember a lifetime as part of Roman culture, where priority was placed upon position in society and in the military.

Another early Church memory might be stronger for you: the hills around Galilee and the desert near the Dead Sea where the Essenes and others gathered to meditate and study. Then too you may be emotionally drawn to painful scenes of being among early Christians who were martyred for the courage of believing in the Messiah. Regardless of specifics, you are quite likely always to be dominated by a sense of expectancy and mystery.

In later lifetimes since the early Church period, you were probably celibate, as a nun or monk of a leading religious order.

Noble, compassionate Jupiter and spiritual, mystical Neptune are the two rulers or key symbols for the sign of Pisces. From Neptune comes the intuitive forces, the mystical or mysterious influences in your experience, whether you allow them to be mentally or consciously active or not. Another influence of these planets as expressed through Pisces is that although you have a great deal of compassion, you may be too passive in expressing your personal energy and soul force. Also, it will probably be much easier for you than for most people to suppress your sexual desires because of the memory of one or more past lives when you set aside your personal concerns for the good of the entire community. [816-3, 1506-1, 997-1]

Your Sun is in Leo (Sidereal zodiac).

Leo symbolizes the consciousness wherein there is strength, creativity and virility, as well as a certain headstrong or willful nature in how you apply yourself in relationship with others.

For instance, reading biographical or historical novels about European royalty, daydreaming about the courts of Kings and Queens of modern Europe or ancient times and other grandeurs of the past may bring to your conscious mind memories of previous incarnations when you were at the forefront of things. Hence to this very day there probably remains within you considerable inner strength along with a strong feeling for behind-the-scenes intrigues as well as a powerful sense of individualism. These qualities are probably connected with your past life experiences involved directly and indirectly with leaders of society and government.

You are also likely to have an above-average interest in the great artistic and spiritual accomplishments of the grand cathedrals and great churches of Britain and Europe, as well as the ancient temples of the Mediterranean world.

In addition, you may have been one of the higher-ranking Vikings who, like other royalty, also had an exciting lifestyle. And in far earlier times, during and after the last days of Lemuria and Atlantis, you may have been among the Incan pyramid builders in the mountains of South America, the Mayan plains of Central America, and of course, Egypt, the land which is virtually synonymous with great pyramids.

The Sun is the ruler or symbol of Leo, and represents strength and soul force. So, from the Sun's influence and the past life experiences summarized here, you are inclined to have a special sense of pride and dignity which, depending on how you apply your will and the ideals you have set for yourself, can either enhance or hinder your relationships with others (and hence either advance or retard your soul growth this lifetime). [533-20, 2905-3]

Your Moon is in Aquarius (Sidereal zodiac).

Aquarius makes for the application of your mental self, so that there are tendencies for you to analyze carefully any given project, or any undertaking dealing with the material world. Also, the more often you undertake projects when others must be considered as well, it will be far better that you manifest a truly cooperative spirit while doing so.

The planet ruled or symbolized by Aquarius is Uranus, which is the purely Atlantean planet. In other words, Uranus is the principal theme of Aquarius, and because Uranus is the realm of a distinctive Atlantean nature, then Aquarius is the zodiacal sign best symbolized by thoughts, personalities and activities akin to the series of prehistoric "space age" civilizations known as Atlantis.

For example, you may once have been involved with scientific discovery and invention, and therefore in the present have the potential again for investigating more scientific or technical areas like computers, engineering, inventing, research, astrology and parapsychology, space travel and the like.

Other similar experiences and abilities with high technologies ranging from electronics in medicine to communications are close to you in terms of your interests and abilities, yet are far away in time. This is also true of a great number of souls who have incarnated in the twentieth century (especially since World War Two), with memories spanning many millennia between the present time and the ancient Atlantean civilizations.

Yet other lifetimes have surely intervened since your Atlantean incarnation. They could range from being an astrologer or magician in the courts of kings to a dedicated pioneer at the frontier of a new land. Or you may have been one who set sail for distant ports only to be carried away in search of lost legends. Other lives, including the present one, could well feature you as one whose stride through life has labeled you as a dreamer, at least to more material-minded souls. [1265-1, 3902-2]

Your Past Life Decanates

According to an ancient Vedic astrology method still practiced in India, Past Life Planets are realms in which you sojourned between earth lifetimes. They are identified through the position of your sidereal Sun and Moon in the decanates (a decanate is a one-third division of a zodiac sign; each is ruled by a planet). Any patterns involving these Past Life Planets are therefore of special importance. Pay extra attention, then, to any sections of your Report which interpret these planets.

NOTE: If your Sun and Moon are both located in a decanate which is ruled by the same planet, then only the Sun position is interpreted; the Moon's decanate position, being the same as the Sun's, therefore does not need to be interpreted.

Your Sun is in Sagittarius Decanate

Your sidereal Sun is in the decanate of Sagittarius, which is ruled by Jupiter. Jupiter as Past Life Planet points to a prominent soul journey between earth incarnations in the realm of Jupiter, called Brahmaloaka in Vedic astrology. Your Jupiter sojourn demonstrates that you have reached a high level of development toward a universal consciousness among all men and women.

Your special Jupiter sojourn also indicates you have a strong inner commitment to faith, optimism and group causes potentially affecting large numbers of people. Past lives in humanitarian or spiritual service and ministry, religious, royal and priestly affairs are likely, especially lifetimes in Egypt and the Holy Land.

Your Moon is in Libra Decanate

Your sidereal Moon is in LIBRA decanate, which is ruled by Venus. Venus as Past Life Planet points to high priorities in creativity, sociability and relationships, especially in your family/home life and in the world of nature. Urges toward these experiences and interests from your sojourn in the Venus dimension are likely to originate in parallel lifetimes of soul development through these areas of self-expression.

Especially indicated are lives in the early Jewish-Christian Church and later as an artist-musician in modern times, whether in the West (Europe and/or America), or in modern or colonial Asia.
