Many people, in fact, all members of humanity who have not yet healed to the point of turning into Light - have the lingering effects of one or more past traumas which are preventing their full potential from manifesting. Some of these past experiences may be recent; some may be things which happened in your childhood which we might not even remember; and some may have come from prenatal events or events which happened before we were even conceived.

Astrology is an excellent tool for zeroing in on where each individual's blocks may be and then suggesting new ways of thinking which will bring about healing and freedom from the past.

Other theories of past reconstruction tend to be unnecessarily tedious, expensive and usually unproductive. For example, non-astrological therapies which go back into the past may dwell on unhappy memories and even increase the pain rather than bring in the solution. Similarly, past life regression may just give more of a feeling of lack of personal power. In reality, the only constructive reasons for going back into the past is to determine what the individual concluded as a belief from the experience and then to replace that belief with a more positive one.

For example, if you experienced hunger sometime in the past and developed a fearful belief from it that you could starve, you would feel more secure by adopting a newer, positive belief to allow the good to enter into your life in the future. You can choose to believe instead that you will always have plenty of nourishing food. You will then be likely to go joyfully to the health food store and even plant your own vegetable garden. You will expect something good to happen and then you will make it happen. You will overcome the possibility of not having enough food. Our beliefs are the thoughts which create our actions. Even if the new belief seems impossible at first, you will be surprised at how fast you start to notice positive changes.

Best Wishes, Lorna Houston

CHAPTER 1: LUNAR NODES

Your lunar nodes give you an overall picture of your life - where you have been and where you are going. Your South Node indicates the overall impressions which you have from the past and what karma you need to come to terms with to move ahead to a bright and happy future. Your North Node outlines what that positive future will be like - the meaningful life path which you will be free to pursue once you have got your past limitations out of the way.

Whether you choose to look at your past in terms of inheritance from your ancestors or past lives in previous incarnations, the overall pattern of your South Node will be the same. It will be an abstract description of however you conceptualize your past influences. Similarly, your North Node will be an abstract impression of your future growth and it will be up to you to fill in the details of how your life mission will unfold.

North Node in Libra - South Node in Aries:

You have already seen enough fighting and quarreling to last a lifetime - especially because other people's inability to get along has affected you. You have learned how to compete and win from your past but you are now thinking that there is one point in furthering one's own ego to win if the other person has to lose or if you lose. Your future path will involve learning how to build healthy relationships and to create peace. Cultivate cooperation, diplomacy and harmony.

North Node 7th House - South Node 1st House:

In your past you have been forced to put yourself first in order to survive. This may have involved military discipline and fighting, or other types of competition. Now you may realize it would be nicer to cooperate with a partner and build harmony rather than only thinking of yourself. Afterall, the purpose of military encounters is to create peace.

CHAPTER 2: SATURN

Saturn represents the area(s) where you have been held back, but on the positive side it gives you stability and awareness of your roots. Saturn can be viewed as the influence of your grandparents, the Sun as your father's influence and the moon as your mother's. In a family with healthy relationships, Saturn will give you the sense of outer authority which you will then internalize as your own independent self-discipline as you grow. Your grandparents will be seen as laying the groundwork for future generations to progress.

However, if family conditions have been less than perfect, your grandparents may have left their unresolved problems to your parents who have then passed on this burden to you. A grandparent may have been absent, too strict and harsh, or even deliberately sadistic and controlling. He or she may have experienced great lack or deprivation, such as poverty, cold, lack of shelter, lack of water or food, or overworked and harsh conditions. Your own liberation will come from realizing that you are not being disloyal or disobedient when you create a future in which you will let go of these influences.

Saturn in Sagittarius:

Your grandparents may have followed very strict religious beliefs from which you want to free yourself. You may have to make up your own mind to travel somewhere far enough away where you can be your own person and think more positive thoughts.

Saturn in 9th House:

Although your ancestors' religious beliefs worked from them in the past, you now need to adapt your beliefs to what is actually still relevant in the modern age. You need to examine how much of these beliefs are genuinely spiritual and useful, and how much are just misunderstanding and ways to control the followers.

Saturn Sextile N. Node:

Because of the positive faith of your grandparents whose past obstacles could be overcome, you have benefited from the rewards which they created for you. You still need to go further in working your way out of your past and into your future, but you will move ahead with ease.

CHAPTER 3: THE MOON

An understanding of your Moon is very important in overcoming past traumas because it represents your emotions and it is your emotions which must be healed. The Moon is indicative of the motherly influence in your chart and mothers are the early source of nurturing. If you can bring in enough nurturing, at any stage in your life, to offset any past traumas, you will have successfully offset whatever was in essence the opposite of being nurtured.

So, you need to learn how to nurture yourself better and then to carry this out in specifically addressing the area(s) of hurt. You can work on this by yourself and/or you can seek out the help of family, friends, community resources and religious supports. The main thing is to come to see you are loved and worthy of love. Keep re-affirming this thought so the love will get bigger and bigger in your mind and the experience of lack of love will get smaller and smaller.

Moon in Pisces:

Your mother nurtured you well emotionally by communicating with you psychically and perhaps by providing you with a creative, musical environment. She was willing to sacrifice anything for her child and wanted what was best for you. However, she was not always practical and she may not have had very much to give you, in terms of your material needs. If she herself had any unresolved emotional problems, she may have unintentionally passed them on to you and you would do well to address them.

Moon in 1st house:

Your mother tended to put her own needs ahead of yours and you may appear to others as if you need more nurturing. However, the one lesson she did teach you well was to be independent and to care for yourself. You may sometimes do this by getting others to feel sorry for you and do things for you, but one way or another you always land on your feet.

Moon Quincunx Venus:

For some reason your mother held back in expressing love and affection towards you. It may be that her own upbringing lacked the love she needed. However, you can overcome this now by learning what is involved in a healthy relationship and a happy home.

Moon Square Saturn:

You experienced a conflict as to how you were raised in your early years because your mother was at odds with your grandparents. She wanted to give you more nurturing and they competed with her and introduced more strictness and less joy. You now need to forget the past and be happier in the present moment.

Moon Quincunx Uranus:

In your early childhood your mother was able to break free of her own past limitations and provide you with exposure to new ways of thinking. You therefore developed your originality and inventiveness and you are able to combine that with enough of the hint of stability from the past to make your inventions practical and workable.

CHAPTER 4: THE SUN

While the moon rules your mother and unconditional love, the Sun rules your father and conditional love. In other words your father teaches you there are limits on behavior, as you will be rewarded if you behave well and not if you don't. If your father was not present or if he did not perform his fatherly role for some reason, then you may have become subject to traumatic experiences brought about by persons who disapproved of your behavior. It is also possible that your father, or whoever was in the fatherly role, abused you in some way. This would have left you with two challenges to overcome: to heal from the abuse and to learn socially acceptable behaviors from someone else. What you can best do is to seek out persons who are reliable, trustworthy, well-adjusted father figures and learn from them. For example, there are ministers, counselors and teachers. If one of these other persons turns out not to be reliable either, then do not be discouraged and do not blame yourself; you have not done anything wrong.

Sun in Virgo:

Because you are naturally very clean conscious, living and health, you will avoid having negative experiences in the first place and you will certainly not allow yourself to dwell on emotions about past events. You are rational and logical. You work hard and you will be more concerned with doing a conscientious job than being unnecessarily emotional. You will help others rise up out of their negativity too.

Sun in 6th house:

Because you pay such careful attention to your health, you will not be held back by any past, unresolved emotions. You are very rational and analytical, and you see things in their proper perspective. You may also be helping others besides yourself, especially if you work in the health care field.

Sun Sextile Neptune:

You have the abilities which could make you a good artist: self-expressiveness, a sense of beauty, and receptivity to visual images. You are kind to others and you would be able to uplift them out of a past, limited perspective to a happier, more imaginative future. Your art could draw their attention to the subtle joys around them.

Sun Conjunct Pluto:

You may have at some point in your life emerged from a life-or-death experience. The intensity of your life experiences comes from the juxtaposition of the Sun (the innermost part of the solar system) and Pluto (the outermost). You have the vitality and courage to face these extremes and you can do much to help others emerge from the most difficult of challenges.

CHAPTER 5: ASCENDANT

While your Sun and Moon represent your father and mother respectively, your Ascendant represent yourself. It is the area of life where you outwardly express your individuality. Your other planetary experiences all come together to be expressed through your Ascendant. It, therefore, is the part of you which others readily see.

In other words, if you want to improve the way in which other see you, you can either change the way in which you express yourself or, if necessary, make deeper changes which will then show through.

An additional approach is to focus on improving your self-confidence. You may be free of any underlying problems; but if you do not believe in yourself, you will not come across as being the wonderful person you really are. So, believe in your own magnificence and think of all the ways in which you are wonderful.

Ascendant in Pisces:

To others you appear to be very imaginative and creative. If you are suffering from any inner, unresolved emotional issues, you may appear like a victim in need of help and you may seem emotionally less stable than you probably really are. Yet, you will seem very compassionate and caring towards anyone else who is in need of help.

Asc. Conjunct Moon:

Outwardly you may appear emotional and moody to others. If you have some underlying, unresolved trauma, you may outwardly be prone to emotional flare-ups and you may lose your temper or cry easily. Yet you are usually kind and protective of others and you are very good at caring for small children.

Asc. Opposition Sun:

You would work best with a partner because you are able to cooperate well with someone else rather than just have your own selfish way. In fact you could succeed in a career as a counselor or public relations person with your ability to bridge the gap with others. As a balance, do take the time to listen to your own needs as well as those of others.

CHAPTER 6: MERCURY

Mercury rules the communication, learning and teaching. If you are trying to free yourself of a past trauma, it is healthy to communicate your needs, either to someone who is a helper or to others who are facing the same problem.

You can learn about how others have dealt with similar challenges and then share this knowledge with others.

If you have been abused as a child and the abuser has told you not to tell anyone about it, you do need to feel guilty or ashamed about seeking help. Often there are telephone lines where you can talk to someone about it without even having to meet the person you are talking to. It is essential to your happiness to get your feelings out and not store them inside. When no one speaks up, it is common for those who have been abused to think they are the only victim, but this is seldom the case.

Mercury in Leo:

You can not only communicate your feelings; you can dramatize them and work them through. You would have a talent for working with children and helping them get their feelings out into the open.

Mercury in 6th house:

You are not likely to hang onto any emotional problem from the past because you are a detached and rational thinker. You see the facts and you do not build any past situations into anything bigger with your imagination.

Mercury Square Mars:

Others may at times consider you to be argumentative but it is good trait to be able to stand up for yourself and to protect yourself verbally if anyone ever tries to take advantage of you. In this way you avoid any traumatic experience from which you would later have to heal.

Mercury Sextile Jupiter:

You look for ways to bring a positive message to those who may feel discouraged. Your advice is both practical and inspirational. You show others there is an optimistic way of looking at life and it is both possible and very healing to follow that path.

Mercury Conjunct Pluto:

With your superior memory and depth of thought, you can no doubt recall some past, traumatic experiences in detail. However, you also possess a gift of logic and an ability to transform negatives into positives. You are therefore able to regenerate and help others do the same. You can show them where their blocks are and what to do about them.

Mercury Sextile N. Node:

You are blessed with good communication skills and a positive attitude and these attributes will successfully take you out of your past challenges and into a future of prosperity.

CHAPTER 7: VENUS

Venus rules love and it is not unusual for those who have been rejected in love to feel some kind of ongoing trauma. Venus rules your heart and you need to heal from these feelings in order to love again. The main thing is not to withdraw from others for too long or to shut off your emotions.

If you have not recovered after a long time, it may be you have another underlying, unresolved issue. For example, if you felt rejected by a parent even before you met that person, you would have to go back and heal that first.

Venus can also be involved in abuses such as sexual assault. This would most likely have occurred after puberty, although non-violent pedophilia of a child victim can occur with a Sun-Venus combination.

The path to healing involves learning to love yourself and restoring your self-esteem. There are professionals and crisis clinics who can help you. You may also wish to focus on justice and self-empowerment.

Venus in Leo:

You are self-confident and energetic and not the type to wallow in past emotions. Instead, you are able to dramatize your feelings and express them.

Venus in 6th house:

You are likely to meet romantic partners through work but you need to use a caution because if the relationship does not work out, it will affect your work environment as well. However, it usually would work out and you would share a common interest.

Venus Square Mars:

You are faced with a challenge of integrating your passive, receptive side with your active, aggressive side. You need to combine these energies into a constructive outlet such as a beautiful, physical art form like tai chi, dance or perhaps building beautiful sculpture or statues. You also need to forgive anyone who may have been too aggressive with you in the past and restore your sensitivity.

Venus Trine Saturn:

Because of the harmony between your grandparents, you are fortunate in being able to enjoy happy, lasting relationships. You have learned to have positive expectations about those whom you love and they respond to this favorably.

Venus Conjunct Uranus:

You are likely to meet many people and to have sudden, temporary relationships because you are sociable and open-minded. Over time you may desire more permanence with one person and this may require you come to accept some of the traditions you have always rejected. You need to decide whether you want excitement or more protection of your emotions.

CHAPTER 8: MARS

Mars is traditionally the war-god and the past traumas associated with it are likely to be associated with war, conflict or aggression. Of course, the opposite to war is peace and the pursuit of peace is the obvious antidote for trauma from wars.

However, it is not always simple as discouraging one's aggressive side. Aggression still needs an outlet and suppression of it will only lead to more conflict. The key is to channel the war skills into peaceful channels. For example, we will always need aggressive people to put out the fires, catch the criminals and do the construction work.

Another aspect of handling Mars energy is to develop your self-confidence. Someone who studies martial arts and knows he or she could win a fight if the necessity ever arose does not feel the need to get into conflict to prove something out of insecurity. Also, if the trauma you are suffering involves having been victimized in a conflict, you would feel safer knowing you have learned to defend yourself if you ever have to in the future.

Mars in Taurus:

In general you are a great promoter of patience and peace. The only conflict which you might be inclined to encounter would be if you become too attached to money and material possessions and then some correction might come in to re-align your awareness with inner security rather than outer attachment.

Mars in 2nd house:

You are very ambitious to achieve financial success and you possess a great deal of initiative and ability to work hard. You would do well owning your own business. You need to make sure your means of material acquisition are always honorable and that you do not get into competition with those who are not as honest as yourself.

Mars Quincunx Saturn:

You are very fortunate to have such strength combined with patience. You are skilled at jobs requiring an engineer's approach and you are capable of working long and hard to do an excellent, dependable job. You are good at handling responsibility. You know how to combine a positive outlook with hard work and your thinking is very constructive and practical.

Mars Quincunx N. Node:

You may at times feel discouraged about the future because of the conflict, war and struggle which have kept holding you back. However, this is a new moment and the happiness you will find in the future will depend on the faith and optimism which you consciously bring into your life now.

CHAPTER 9: JUPITER

The type of traumas associated with Jupiter tends to have to do with religion or culture. For example, you may have suffered from poor treatment on the part of those who did not accept your religious beliefs. Another possibility is you may have been forced to leave your traditional surroundings and then suffer the culture shock of getting used to another country. Or, it may be that persons of another culture have moved into your homeland and made you feel as if you do not belong. In any of these instances, your need is to re-connect with your roots.

Jupiter energy has great potential to heal you from past traumatic experiences. It involves positive thinking, faith and knowledge of the Divine. In fact, it represents the underlying meaning of all religions and cultures. Its optimistic attitude can take you out of past, negative patterns and replace them with an enjoyment of the present moment and a joyful expectation of the future.

Jupiter in Libra:

You apply your religious teaching in a marriage or other partnership and the two of you might work together to spread inspiration and good cheer. You work well with other people because you are generous and interested in them. You just need to make sure you do not spread yourself too thin with too many people and that you maintain a strong sense of self.

Jupiter in 8th house:

Your positive religion or philosophy makes you courageous enough to handle even life-or-death issues. You could give inspiration and practical help to those who are emotionally traumatized by death or disaster. For example, you could handle funerals and estate matters competently.

Jupiter Conjunct Neptune:

Because you are very generous and compassionate, you would be able to uplift persons who feel rejected by past traumatic experiences. You tend to be very religious and psychic, and you can get your inspiration from the higher realms through prayers and meditation.

Jupiter Sextile Pluto:

You need to take advantage of your great optimism and willpower to inspire and uplift the many persons who need to be encouraged and helped after the traumatic experiences which they have had in the past. Show them there is justice and goodness in the end.

Jupiter Conjunct N. Node:

You are being provided with very positive thoughts and promises about your future. Some of them may be valid and true and inspiring. However, you need to maintain discernment to know which are false promises and unrealistic dreams. Look before you leap.

CHAPTER 10: URANUS

Uranus rules sudden changes and any past traumas associated with it are likely to be related to sudden unexpected events such as a lightning strike, a revolution or a sudden earthquake. These events occur when the tension builds up over a long period of time and then suddenly releases. Similarly, if you have built up a lot of tension or if you have been kept down and unable to express yourself, you will be more prone to sudden events. There is really not such a thing as an "accident" because it results in a predictable way when the normal need for change gets repressed.

Insofar as Uranus rules astrology, you can study astrology to predict when sudden, Uranian events are likely to occur in general and in your own life, and then you can make plans to be prepared (or even alter your life's course) ahead of time. You can come to expect sudden changes will be positive and they will be the work of the Divine-righting the wrongs and re-balancing the energies. Then you will anticipate the future with excitement rather than fear.

Uranus in Leo:

You are very unlikely to be held back by any emotional blocks from the past because you are both forward-thinking and emotionally expressive. You find unique ways to express feeling in romances and dramatic presentation and you are very dynamic and cheerful.

Uranus in 6th house:

If you suffered from any traumatic circumstances in the past, you are likely to have found alternative health and healing methods to overcome any of their effects. You are also good at preventing stress before it happens, particularly in your work.

CHAPTER 11: NEPTUNE

Neptune rules emotional receptivity and on the higher level. If you have suffered a past trauma related to Neptune it may be because you were a defenseless victim who was too busy being receptive to assert yourself, or it may be you very compassionately helped someone else and suffered the trauma as an intentional self-sacrifice to save the other person.

The key to healing from such traumas is to get your emotional energy flowing again. You need to talk out your emotions and express them in creative ways, such as by writing poetry, songs, doing art or singing and playing an instrument. It would help you to work with nurturing, non-judgmental, supportive people, so you can express your inner feelings safely. For example, you need to be with people who appreciate your art as self-expressive and who are not concerned with whether it is "good".

The water element could heal you such as swimming, fishing or paddling a canoe out in nature.

Neptune in Scorpio:

You were born in a generation when emotions ran deep and were difficult to bring to the surface. Some resorted to alcohol or drugs, but those who let the emotional healing occur deep inside emerged with a sense of rebirth.

Neptune in 8th house:

You may have a tendency to mull over past emotional hurts and even to think of revenge. However, on the positive side you have a strong will within and by going over past hurts in your mind you can heal from them and emerge being regenerated.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

You were born in an age when there were many opportunities for the people on our planet to align ourselves with a greater spiritual purpose. The key to doing this is kindness and compassion. If these opportunities are taken advantage of, the survival of our planet will be ensured.

CHAPTER 12: PLUTO

As Pluto rules extremes, it rules many types of disasters and traumas. It rules death but it also rules rebirth. If you have ever faced a life-or-death situation or a series of intense circumstances which seemed to be beyond your control, it is likely there was a Pluto transit in your chart.

The events may have affected your emotions deeply and perhaps left you with a fear that something similar could happen again. For example, if you lost relatives in World War II you might be afraid that uncontrollable events could cause you to lose relatives again. However, a study of astrology can give you insight into this and transcend the fear. In World War II, most of the people had Pluto in either Gemini (ruling aunts, uncles and cousins) or Cancer (ruling the mother and children). Pluto will not be in either of these signs again during the normal lifespan because it takes Pluto 248 years to revolve around the Sun and be in the same sign again. So, even if Plutonian events seem unpredictable, they are part of your overall plan and when that is realized, a rebirth occurs.

Pluto in Virgo:

You were born into a generation when the indulgence of the past had come to be seen as the cause of individual and environmental health problems. Therefore there was a major shift towards caring for the planet and exploring alternative, holistic methods of healing.

Pluto in 6th house:

Those in your past may have had difficulty getting work or may have suffered ill health from working too hard at tiring demanding jobs. You learned early, therefore, that the way to transform your life would be to be very careful in the management of the money you earn and not to take risks with your health. As a result you have learned excellent lessons for life about being healthy and investing carefully and wisely.

CONCLUSION

This report has given you many ideas to help you transcend any past traumas. It will also be helpful for you to work with an astrologer who can help you put all of the ingredients together and get a bigger picture. An astrologer can add what are called aspect patterns, such as a kite pattern or a yod, which do not lend themselves well to being calculated for this type of Report. Aspect patterns can give you further insight into how several planetary influences can interact with each other to produce a specific event. You might also get the astrologer to add your current transits and/or the transits when a specific event occurred. Your Chiron could be looked at too.

The concept of Retrogradation could be added, but retrograde planets just give the illusion that you are stuck in your past when really you have moved on. If you imagine you are on a moving train and another train is moving more slowly beside you, it will look as if the other train is moving backwards when really it is not. Similarly the motions of the planets can sometimes make you think you have a problem from the past when you do not.
